"You are God's building. Everyone doing the building must work carefully. Didn't you realise that you were God's temple and that the Spirit of God was living among you? The temple of God is sacred; and you are that temple." [I Cor. 3: 9-17]

This weekend We Remember ... The Act of Homage at the end of both Masses.

This Sunday the children go to parish rooms with the Catechists after the opening hymn and return at Offertory. 100 Club and Fair Trade table during refreshments after Mass in parish rooms. Please support your parish events.

Diary of the month:

13th SVP meets after morning service; Bakewell Churches Together meeting, Friends Meeting House 2pm – a follow-up to our March meeting. Vicky plus choir members have kindly stepped forward to represent the parish. Polly represented us last Tuesday evening – thank you, Polly.

14th Hassop parish meeting at 7.30 pm (Fr Hugh)

15th Deanery meeting in Clay Cross

17th Christmas Fair in Hassop parish rooms – like last year.

25th is the feast of the Christ the King – it is National Youth Sunday and, for us, the last Sunday of month Mass. We didn't do very well last time round due to the absence of Sarah and her back-up team. Please reply to the emails you receive as parents of our young people.

30th Information day concerning the Catholic Multi Academy Trust under the guidance of Joe Hopkins, the Lead Lay Chaplain for the St Ralph Sherwin Trust. More info from Fr Hugh or on the notice boards.

From Bishop Patrick: "Thank you all in All Saints Hassop and English Martyrs Bakewell for a most enjoyable weekend. I felt welcomed. My thanks to servers, musicians, catechists, for their work with the Confirmation group, and to the Candidates themselves on their preparation and generous commitment to go forward in the Church. My thanks go to all who helped us to enjoy the social gatherings after both Masses. Finally, I wish to congratulate the parish on the ways in which you have celebrated your 200th Anniversary. The booklet, 'Temple in the Peaks' is very readable and most interesting. I note that this year is the 46th anniversary of the Spiritans coming to serve the parish community. I thank you for your welcome and hospitality. Bishop Patrick"

Next Saturday evening Thomas will be Confirmed in Bakewell church during Mass. Fr Hugh will celebrate the Sacrament as the Bishop's Delegate - it will be valid!

From Thursday's Social Committee meeting: Sadly we are disappointed with the frequently made appeals to help the Committee to prepare for the Christmas Fair. The response so far is not encouraging. The Fair is next Saturday and will finish on Sunday morning. A number have already very generously responded to the Committee's appeals – thank you so much for your kind and generous gesture. This is the last week before the Fair and we would like to ask you to donate one reasonably good item for the Fair. Our parish social events are meant to bring the community together as well as to keep our parish finances stable. If you have some ideas about what social events you would like to see in the parish, please let us know or, if you would like to join the Committee, please let Sharon know. Two new members have joined recently – thank you for stepping forward!

Advance notice: the Advent Reconciliation Service takes place on Saturday 15th December at 11.00am in Hassop. Visiting priests have already signed up to come to help us with this Sacrament. Please make a note of it.

Anne Shimwell and the Family would like to thank all who joined with them on Thursday afternoon for Ted's funeral service. It was a beautiful celebration and our parish community was well represented.

This weekend we join the family of John & Jill who have suffered the loss of a dear family member this past week. We assure them and their family members of our prayers and deep, deep sympathy at this sad time for them all.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Margaret Taberner, Patricia Turner, Shirley Plant, Mary McNulty, Rosaline Varnes, Mary Howlings and two parishioners taken to hospital in recent days.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Peter Short, Frances Walsh, Dorothy Dale, John Hodgkinson and Jack & Peggy Lowes. May their souls rest in peace
