In November, we remember and when old words die out on the tongue, new melodies can break forth from the heart (INTERCOM Nov. 2006 p.37)

In the month of November we are invited by the liturgy to pray particularly for the Holy Souls. In some parishes there is the custom of writing out the names of those we carry in our prayer and who have gone before us marked with the Divine Presence in their lives. Prayer for those who have died is a reminder of the Ash Wednesday liturgy, "Remember you are dust and to dust you will return..." and how we will all stand humbly before Almighty God and ask for pardon. In this month, then, we are free to follow this custom if we so wish or to undertake another formula of prayer in union with the Church's prayer. Envelopes are available. Fr Hugh Parish 100 Club Draw takes place after 10.30am Mass in Bakewell over refreshments. Our thanks go to Mary Pickard for keeping it all together and for looking for new club members. Forms are available for new members.

Future Events:

Sat. 11th November: AUTUMN FUND RAISING DINNER. The organising committee of the dinner needs to know the numbers coming, how many are vegetarian, are there any special needs? Please let Peter Marsh know – thank you!

Also, the Commissioning of the new Special Ministers of the Holy Eucharist by Bishop Malcolm in the cathedral. Mickey Etchells will be amongst those to be commissioned.

Sat. 2nd December - GRAND CHRISTMAS FAIR. Please help and get in touch with Sharon Clarke-Marsh on 01298 84272! Raffle tickets at the back of the church.

Some parishioners have very generously donated prizes for the draw: our thanks are due to them for their support. More prizes will help the draw to be a success and do keep in mind the closing date for the return of all tickets (sold or unsold).

Saturday 18th November: Beginning at 10.30am and finishing by 12.30 a little time and space for our Special Ministers of the Holy Eucharist to be together for a little prayer, a short workshop to speak about some issues and a re-commissioning of the Ministers.

ADVENT CATECHESIS FOR ADULTS is being planned for 29th Nov., 6th, 13th and 20th December. 7-9pm in the narthex of Bakewell church. Light refreshments beforehand at 7pm.

ADVENT CAROL SERVICE: Thursday, 14th December

7.30pm and on 19th December a community celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation at 7.00pm. Both in Hassop Church.

5th November: The Annual Farming Service in Bakewell

October 2007: Rome pilgrimage being organised by Diocese Youth Alive the Diocesan Youth Alive Day is on 19th Nov. Further details on 01773856115 or from Fr Hugh

A Welcome-to-our-Parish Form and Gift Aid Forms and small envelopes (for one-off use) are available in both churches. If you need help to find them, let the welcomers know – thanks!

OXFAM Fair: Monday 6th Nov. in Bakewell Town Hall 9.30-12. See Notice Board

Catholic responses to the challenge of the resurgence of Islam.

This is your opportunity to learn more about Islam and have some of your questions answered. Why do some women wear a face veil? What does "jihad" mean? Prof Edward Hulmes who specialises in the study of Islam will be willing to answer these and other questions and inform us about the religion of many of our fellow citizens. Please give your name to Janet Byrne 01629 640232 if you are interested in attending. These sessions will be held early next year, dates and venue to be announced.

My Experience at The Briars: I was fortunate to attend a residential training weekend at The Briars, Crich in preparation for Extraordinary Ministry of Holy Communion. The programme involved spiritual development, Sacrament of Reconciliation, Holy Communion to the Sick and Preparation for Holy Mass. This was a very happy and rewarding experience for me. I made many new friends, all of whom I look forward to seeing again on the 11th November at The Mass of Commissioning in Nottingham Cathedral. Mickey Etchells

Sick and Housebound: We pray for Ron Simpson, Peter Fay, Maureen Davis, Mary Philips, Carole Petts, Anthony Culshaw, William Watkins, Jacobo Medin Dopico, Marie Taylor. May Brunnette and Mary Reynolds.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for John Tasker, Peter Short and the Faithful departed:

May their souls rest in peace
