"Madam, are you carrying any arms?" asked the Israeli soldier. "Perhaps", replied Mother Teresa. The soldier opened her little bag and began his search. He found only her prayer books inside! "A kingdom of truth & life, a kingdom of holiness & grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace ..."

Fr David Cain, Concelebrates the three Masses this weekend to speak about vocations. We warmly welcome him to our parish community and pray that his visit will be blessed. Fr David leads us in the Holy Hour on Sunday afternoon at 4-00pm in Hassop. If our altar servers can join us along with as many parishioners as possible for this, it would be a very appropriate way to celebrate the feast of Christ the King. After the Holy Hour, refreshments available in the presbytery.

PARISH GRAND CHRISTMAS FAIR is next Saturday! It is held in Bakewell Town Hall. Doors open at 12-00 noon and we are hoping to have a huge turn-out from the parish. Still needed for the fair – lots of cakes and bottles (full ones!) for the stalls. Further advice and guidance from Sharon Clarke-Marsh on 01298 84272.

Parish Christmas cards are on sale at £3.50 per packet of 12 cards. Proceeds go towards the parish.
