Benedict XVI

A Very Big Thank You to all who contributed to and planned our December Fair last Saturday in Bakewell Town Hall. "Never was so much done by so few in so short a time" was my reaction when I heard the overall result of £1,594.45. I have nothing but admiration for those parishioners who put it all together and make such a success of these events. Fr H.

Altar Servers will have a meeting on Saturday, 16th December at 10.30 till 11.30am. Last time we had a good meeting so let's try once again.

Parish Christmas cards, Missals and other Advent booklets are on sale. Please check prices and leave money in designated basket.

ADVENT CATECHESIS FOR ADULTS continues next Wednesday evening at 7-30pm in the narthex of Bakewell church. Light refreshments available beforehand from 7pm. Please come along to spend a little time in thought as we journey together through Advent. Invite a friend to come with you. Wednesday's theme is on the vocation of Mary the Mother of Jesus. Deacon John Hague will guide the reflection/discussion. The session will finish at 9-00pm at the latest but it may finish earlier.

"A Catholic response to the challenge of the resurgence of Islam": Two talks by Prof. Edward Hulmes are planned on 18th January and 1st February 2007. Janet Byrne has kindly agreed to be the contact person for this so, please, give Janet a ring on 01629 640232 for more information and planning.

Christmas Preparations in both our churches are being planned. Next week we'll have a collection to help with our preparations especially for the altar decorations.

4th Sunday of Advent and Christmas Eve – some parishioners have asked what do we do when we have Christmas Eve on a Sunday. The Mass of Sunday morning is for Advent. The Mass of Sunday evening (Christmas Eve) is for Christmas. Can we do one for two, you may ask, (bearing in mind we are so used to having 2 for the price of 1!) and I would say, if you are dropping with exhaustion because of your Advent Journey, you may have grounds for this! Fr Hugh

Thursday, 14th December at 7-30pm: Ecumenical Carol Service in Hassop.

Tuesday, 19th December at 7-00pm community celebration of the Sacrament of Penance with visiting priests – in Hassop church. The visiting priests are Frs Trevor Clarke, Michael Tucher and Joe Wheat (new Director at Crich Centre).

Fr Philip Marsh, recently appointed provincial of the Holy Ghost Fathers' English Province, will visit us on 13th December and will attend our Wednesday evening talk in Bakewell. It is his first visit as provincial and he will stay overnight.

Archbishop Vincent Nichols has spoken publicly on the 'Sexual Orientation Regulations' due to become law next year and the attitude of the Government saying its legal framework and moral standards are unacceptable. (See The Tablet 2/12/06 p.46). A petition to be sent to our local M.P. is available if any parishioner would like to sign it.
