A Word of thanks to all who have helped us to celebrate these weeks of Advent and to make our preparations for Christmas. We have many Marthas & Marys, some John the Baptists & Josephs in our midst still ... many, many thanks to you all on behalf of our parish. Fr Hugh

The traditional Christmas offerings for the parish clergy will be taken up at the Christmas Masses. The special envelope in your gift aid box can be used for this offering if you so wish.

"A Catholic response to the challenge of the resurgence of Islam": Two talks by Prof. Edward Hulmes are planned on 18th January and 1st February 2007. Janet Byrne has kindly agreed to be the contact person for this so, please, give Janet a ring on 01629 640232 for more information and planning.

Apologies for changes to the Minister's rota due to some people being away.

Amnesty International organises a greetings card campaign that continues until 31st January. We are invited to send a greetings card to those who may be at risk. Full details on notice boards in clearly marked envelopes.

CAFOD Christmas cards realised £150.00 and Cynthia & Mary wish to thank you for your support to CAFOD.

The 9-30am Saturday morning Mass in Bakewell will be discontinued after Saturday 23rd December. We are usually about 2-3 present for this Mass and, as we have a Saturday evening Mass in the same church, there is not a pastoral need for the morning celebration. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be celebrated from 5-30 to 6-00pm in the New Year.

The parish website is being maintained by willing hands. The 'In Touch' magazine is posted on it along with our Mass schedule. Have a look at it and feel free to make suggestions through the parish office.

The Year of Luke: Saturday 20th January a study day at Mackworth. £10 pp bring a packed lunch and a Bible! Book by 8th January. See notice board for more details.

Sick and Housebound: We pray for Ron Simpson, Peter Fay, Maureen Davis, Mary Philips, Carole Petts, Anthony Culshaw, William Watkins, Jacobo Medin Dopico, Marie Taylor. May Brundette, Mary Reynolds and David Cowan.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for: Margaret Everett, John Dougherty, John Gannon and Thomas Cassells. May their souls rest in peace

This is my first Christmas with you in Hassop and Bakewell and I would simply like to express again my deep thanks to all our parishioners and our regular visitors my deep gratitude for all you do in the parish. We are a small community – it is true – but there is good stuff in small communities, isn't there! A Very Happy Christmas and a Blessed New Year to you all! Fr Hugh
