How Can we develop our parish spirituality? This question is asked in our Parish Pastoral Plan 2005-2007 and goes on to suggest a number of action points including this, "Continue to develop the Advent and Lent Journeys for parishioners." Very soon our Lent journey will begin. If you have any personal suggestions to offer for this Lent season, please feel free to discuss with Fr Hugh.

Lent together in our parish – as we go through this special season of liturgical prayer, there will be a number of parish activities planned. On Saturday 24th March we will have Fr Dominic Milroy OSB with us for a mini-recollection. On 31st March we shall have our penitential service – this time celebrated on a Saturday morning.

The 10th National Marriage Week (11-18th Feb.) is celebrated this week. Archbishop Rowan Williams, speaking on the week's theme, says, "it is possible to live as a human being and not be afraid that you are going to be let down, abandoned, left to yourself (for) somebody has actually committed to be there for you." (cf Daily Telegraph p. 19 6.2.07.)

Mrs Pat Bryant (Reader in the Parish Church) has written asking us to help with singing at the 2.45pm Sunday Service in Riverside House, Newholme Hospital next Sunday, 18th February. Pat is hoping that 3 or 4 adults will go along to assist.

Mr Kevin McKenna has been in touch with the parish on a few occasions. He has written on behalf of the Catenian Association and recently he has written to say that the Catenians will visit the parish on 25th February and join us for refreshments after the 10-30am Mass

Contemporary Issues on slavery and justice: a day conference is arranged for Friday 23rd February. Further details on tel. 0113 244 3413.

In the Cathedral at Nottingham on Sunday 25th February the 22nd Annual Rite of Election will be celebrated. The Rite of Election marks an important stage on their journey for catechumens and other candidates entering fully into the life of the Church and her Sacraments.
