'The Sign of Peace is an important part of the celebration of the Eucharist. In a time of fear and conflict it offers the challenge and hope of peace, and points us to the One who is "our peace".' (INTERCOM July/August 2007 p. 11)

Padley Pilgrims were very brave last Sunday! We were eleven including little Petra who had no say in the matter – she's only a few months old and was brought along by her parents! Two bishops and about 10 priests concelebrated and our own Deacon John did the ministry of Deacon. Perhaps 160-180 pilgrims had gathered, as many as possible inside the chapel and the rest outside seeking shelter wherever possible because the rain was very heavy at times. Brollies were plentiful! The guest preacher didn't make it: his car broke down on the M6 and he had to be towed back to Brummy-land! Bishop John of Hallam filled the gap and gave a magnificent homily. And, yes, it did happen last Sunday evening. At about 7-00pm I answered the phone and there was a certain gentleman at the other end wanting to know when the Padley Pilgrimage would take place ... Blessings and peace to all in all situations! Fr Hugh

Our parish family farewell to Joseph was very generously supported. Joseph received £50 in book tokens and a further £104 in cash from his well-wishers. A big 'thank you' to you all on behalf of Joseph is in order and we hope he has a very enjoyable holiday.

'Cut the Carbon' March - with walkers from Belfast to London. The ABC will be asking for some help with hospitality for 19-20th August. The walkers will arrive in Bakewell at about 6pm on Sunday 19th August and there will be a social event in the Medway Centre in Bakewell at 8pm that evening to learn more about the walkers and their aims.
