From midday 1st to midnight 2nd November, a Plenary Indulgence may be gained for the Holy Souls as we begin November.

Fr Tom Cummins visits the parish next weekend for the annual mission appeal. Fr Tom is a member of the White Fathers who have brothers and lay associates attached to their Institute. They have a long history in Africa and other mission lands and, like the Holy Ghost Frs, continue to be present in those lands today as servants of the Gospel. We welcome Fr Tom to our parish: I hope he will enjoy his short stay with us and that we will respond generously. Fr Hugh Poppy Appeal: Paul McIver is looking for helpers with the street collections on Monday 5th and Saturday 10th November – please contact him on 01629 812221 to volunteer.

Pat Bryant (from the Parish Church) writes to tell us that Al Gore's film "An Inconvenient Truth" will be shown on 6th and 12th November at 7.15pm at Church House Bakewell. If interested, please contact Pat on 01629 815225 so that arrangements can be made.

Our little pocket diary (so useful!) will not be given to us free this year. The publishers could not get enough support from local advertisers in this area. They are willing to do it next year ... for a small fee.

Traidcraft and Fairtrade

- The Parish makes no profit from the sale of Traidcraft goods unless people generously make an extra donation e.g. by not taking the change. These donations have enabled us to buy a tin of coffee for the Parish.
- We sell Traidcraft products some of which may also be Fairtrade produce. By buying through the Parish more money reaches the developing world than by buying in supermarkets. Fairtrade is publishing a new leaflet in November with a fuller explanation and this will be put on the notice boards.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Teresa Fidler, Ron Simpson, Maureen Davis, Jacobo Medin Dopico, Mary Phillips, Anthony Culshaw, Marie Taylor, Carole Petts and May Brundette.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Mary Wright and Jack Hurst.

May their souls rest in peace.
