Come to us and save us, Lord, God almighty. Let your face smile on us and we shall be saved.

A Few Words at Christmas!

We, the parish clergy, would like to wish you all a Very Happy and Joyful Christmas – to you, our regular parishioners for whom our parish exists; to you, our regular visitors who may be with us on a number of occasions in the course of the year when you come to stay in the Peak District, and to you our “first time” visitors, perhaps, who do not know us and whom we in the parish do not yet know. If you have only recently arrived in the area and are new to the parish, please let us know by writing down your details.

This wonderful feast brings us together in this house of prayer once more. Families make an effort to see each other, many cards sent and presents bought and much good will is seen in the lives of those for whom the Message of Christmas still has meaning. Each one of us gathered in prayer this Christmastide has the vocation and the mission to keep alive that fundamental message that our Christian faith proclaims viz. 'the love of God has been made to us in Christ Jesus our Lord'. This is the reason for our celebrations.

To you all we wish you a truly Joyful Feast

Yours in Christ,

Fr Hugh and Deacon John

The Christmas and the week's Mass schedule are given above. Please take a copy of the newsletter home with you. Thank You!

The Christmas hampers remain in both churches. You can add something of your choice to either one or both! Tickets at £1 per strip are still available and the raffle will take place next weekend. Money raised will go to help the Derwent Rural Counselling Service, which is a local counselling service, based at Newholme.

Envelopes for the clergy Christmas offerings are available in both churches. The Gift Aid envelopes in your boxes can be used, also, and all offerings can be Gift Aided in order to benefit the parish.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Teresa Fidler, Ron Simpson, Maureen Davis, Jacobo Medin Dopico, Mary Phillips, Anthony Culshaw, Marie Taylor, Carole Petts, Emma and Fr Trevor Clarke.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Tony Furness, Margaret Everett, John Dougherty, John Gannon Thomas Cassells and Sr M. Dominic Thomas who died recently. May their souls rest in peace.
