Week of Prayer for Christian Unity: this week we celebrate the centenary of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Archbishop Rowan Williams asks himself this question: "So what do I pray for? For a deepened awareness of my need for Christ's life received through the eucharistic community - deep enough to make me more eager to find the visible and sustainable forms that will keep me open to this life and hold me in it." (The Tablet 22/29th Dec. 2007)

This is a special time for our Christian communities in the Hassop and Bakewell Parishes.

Sharing in Prayer and Worship: "At the level of the local churches there are many occasions for seeking the gifts of the Holy Spirit and that 'change of heart and holiness of life which, along with the public and private prayer for the unity of Christians, would be regarded as the soul of the whole ecumenical movement'. Many forms of this 'spiritual ecumenism' are emerging today in prayer groups in which members of various confessions assemble." [Vatican II Documents pp 159-160]

20th January United Service at the Friends' Meeting House (NOT the Methodist Church) in Bakewell at 6pm. All welcome.

Bishop Malcolm's Pastoral Letter is read at the Masses this weekend. The Bishop invites the people of the Diocese to help him in the responsibility he has for the sick and retired priests of the Diocese. Gift Aid envelopes will be available for all who wish to use them. The Diocesan Directory gives further information on this fund on pp 51-52.
