'I have come that they may have life'- these are Christ's words telling us the reason why he was here on earth. The life that is mentioned can only come from and through him. He also tells us that he is the 'door' to this life. By this he means him, we are that without lost and our human life has no meaning. Jesus also refers to himself as 'the Good Shepherd' He takes the lead in showing us where to go, how to act and how to live. He always leads but never drives us and is always ready to go back and seek out the stray. He knows each of us by name. 'You did not chose me, no I chose you.'

the Middle east. Christians in the Middle eat have long suffered violence and upheaval and yet they cling to their faith. Fr.Samer Nassif from Lebanon will ask what hope remains for the faithful in this ravaged land.
