Christian liturgy not only recalls the events that saved us but actualises them. Christ's Paschal Mystery is celebrated not repeated.

Bakewell Church Painting will begin this week. Morning Mass/Service will be celebrated in Hassop only during this week to help the painter to complete the work. The evening Mass on 24th May will be as usual ... we hope!!

The new Gift Aid envelope boxes and information are available this weekend. Tony and Janet Byrne have kindly prepared all that we need to continue our parish scheme before they had to travel. The Welcomers will try to help you to find your box of envelopes and your up-to-date parish information. If you want to join the parish scheme, don't be afraid for it is never too late to do this kind of work!

Parish Barbecue Tickets are available this weekend: £3.50 per ticket for Friday evening 23rd May. Proceeds towards helping Ruth & Rachel. Please do support it and make it a family evening. Parents, altar servers, our young musicians from the 1st Sunday Mass and their friends are all invited along with all parishioners who would like to come. The barbecue takes place in Hassop garden and presbytery. Obviously for those organising the rolls & burgers and drinks, we need to know how many people are coming so, if you have friends & family joining us, please let Lise Elliot and Margaret Trend know so that we can be prepared.

United Service in the Methodist Church in Bakewell on 18th May at 6pm is an ecumenical service with our parish choir participating. Perhaps this Sunday we can make a very special effort and attend this joint service!

With the tragic news coming from Burma and China, Christian Aid along with other agencies will be seizing opportunities to help the victims.

Home is a Holy Place was the topic for reflection last Saturday in Our Lady of Lourdes parish. Further information found on www.homeisaholyplace.org.uk

BAKEWELL CARNIVAL will have an ecumenical float this year with participants from the local churches. The organisers are looking for willing volunteers and Sue Hannan will give you all the guidance you need. Contact Sue on 01629 813545.
