Lord Jesus Christ, you gave us the Eucharist as the memorial of your life, death and resurrection. May we, who worship this Sacrament of your presence in our midst, experience the salvation you have won for each one of us. Amen.

No Weekday Mass in Bakewell this week. Church painting continues and our grateful thanks to the parishioners who are with the decorators. Monday morning Mass in Hassop at 11-30am for Bank Holiday

The Eucharist as Mission How does the Mass give meaning to Go in peace to love and serve the Lord? A study/reflection day takes place on 14th June at Newark. It is open to all. Further details on church notice boards.

The new Gift Aid envelope boxes and information are available this weekend. Tony and Janet Byrne have kindly prepared all that we need before they had to travel. The Welcomers will help you to find your boxes and your up-to-date personal information. Almost all the boxes and letters were collected last Sunday – thank you for your response! If you want to join the parish scheme, don't be afraid. It is easy & never too late. It is, after all, our parish 7 days a week.

JUNE DIARY:

An Evening Talk by Harold Sharpe J.P. is arranged for 2nd June at 8-30pm in Bakewell Methodist Church. The theme will reflect on Disability and the Church. Thanks to the Parishioners and Choir Members who gave up their Sunday evening last week in order to participate in the joint service celebrated in the Methodist Church. 'It is in giving to all that we receive ...'

Our Local Padley Pilgrimage Walk takes place on Sunday 13th July finishing with Mass in the chapel. Last year 12 Parishioners joined the pilgrimage. Can we make it 20 this year? You don't have to do the whole walk ... just a little bit!

The Catholic Truth Society (CTS) celebrates its 140th anniversary this year. New supporters are being sought.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Teresa Fidler, Ron Simpson, Maureen Davis, Jacobo Medin Dopico, Anthony Culshaw, Marie Taylor, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg and Rita Mann along with all our sick.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Gerard Baines and Nellie Eardly. May their souls rest in peace.
