On a bad day when it seems that people are doing their best to wind me up, remember it takes 42 muscles to frown, 28 to smile and only 4 to reach out and do somebody physical harm ... but this is not the way of the Kingdom of Heaven!

A Special Word of Thanks to all who helped with our First Communion Celebration last Sunday. We had a very full church and many people said how nice everything was for Fiona, Katie and Amelia and their parents. Special thanks go to all who prepared the Liturgy, to our 3 young parishioners for "their big day", to Christine & the choir, the musicians, Liz for the flowers, altar servers & sacristy needs, Elizabeth & Paula our Catechists & their helpers over the past year, the readers, the folks who helped to plan the refreshments and, yes, the collectors who had a bigger task than usual! To all, including those whose task might escape us just now, we would like to say 'Thank you for everything', Fr Hugh & Deacon John.

Padley Pilgrimage went off well. The weather was very good, the homilist (Bishop J. Arnold) excellent 'On the Year of St Paul', a fair sprinkling of younger people but not as many pilgrims (priests and deacons included!) as last year. From our parish we were about 8 regular parishioners and about 5 "occasional" parishioners/visitors.

The Catholic News July 2008 (p.2) has a letter from an international group of 16 scientists and clinicians on the topic of stem-cell therapy (Stem-cell therapy is no miracle cure). It was first published in The Times and is worth reading. Seemingly, this letter was ignored by the Department of Health Ministers and many other MPs in recent debates. Some copies are available. The debate on the Report Stage of the Embryology Bill has been delayed and takes place later this year. This appears to be due to the strong response of the many people who voiced objections to the Bill.

Our World Youth Day Pilgrims - Rachel and Ruth have sent messages to their families and all is going well so far.

Our Parish 100 Club Draw takes place this Sunday after 10-30 Mass. We are looking for more members to reach that 100 membership target. Quite a few people who support it live outside the parish ... and they think of us and our parish needs.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Teresa Fidler, Ron Simpson, Maureen Davis, Anthony Culshaw, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg and Rita Mann along with all our sick.

Anniversaries: - We pray this week especially for John Pickard, Jane Blackwell, Ida Thorpe and John Walsh. Also, we remember Mr Etchells who died recently (father of Nigel & father-in-law of Mickey). May their souls rest in peace.
