40% of part-time workers in the UK, mostly women, earn less than £6.50 an hour. 30% of disabled adults live in poverty – that's double the rate for non-disabled adults. 66% of the public think asylum seekers should be allowed to work – they are not allowed.

The Bakewell Show hits town this week! Mass next Thursday in Hassop at 9-30 and not Bakewell!

At the last PPC meeting it was suggested that we offer some religious education for our younger parishioners apart from First Reconciliation/First Communion and Confirmation preparation. I think this is a very good suggestion and hope to take it further with the help of a few parishioners. It will mean making a commitment to our future plans.

Our monthly Youth Mass (on 1st Sundays) takes place this Sunday. After the Mass, I would like to have a brief meeting with our young musicians and organisers along with all who are interested in helping to support this important liturgy.

Hassop weekly choir practice resumed last Tuesday. Ten regular members were present and, on behalf of the parishioners, I would like to express our thanks for their commitment. New members from Hassop and Bakewell are invited to join and, if transport is a problem, please let me know and something will be arranged.
Fr Hugh

The August ABC monthly Good News has articles written by two parishioners – both worth reading!

THORNTONS Go Fair Trade – as reported in the recent diocesan Justice & Peace newsletter. One of our younger parish members has a summer job with THORNTONS so this might be the result of his effort!

15th August – Feast of the Assumption is one of the 4 remaining Holy Days of Obligation – the only one to honour the vocation of the Blessed Virgin Mary – and a day when we are invited to do our utmost to attend Holy Mass.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Teresa Fidler, Ron Simpson, Maureen Davis, Anthony Culshaw, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg and Rita Mann along with all our sick.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Mary Bennett, Fr Thomas Finan CSSp., Margaret Bowden and George Leslie Bell. May their souls rest in peace

A little girl became restless as the priest's sermon dragged on and on. Finally, she leaned over to her mother and whispered 'Mummy if we give him the money now, will he let us go?'
