Dave Keegan and David Clarke are desperate for some help as they prepare for a contact with the Bakewell business community. They need a few willing walkers to help with card distribution next Wednesday morning at 9-30 in the Methodist church. So far only 12 people have volunteered but 25 are needed. Please call Dave on 01246 234792 to give a few minutes of your time in this new venture.

The Campaign Against the Secularisation of Christmas has a lovely little leaflet, which promotes charitable giving at Christmas. It's worth getting to know more about this group.

The Proceeds from our Christmas Hampers this year will go to help the children's home and orphan project attached to the hospital in South Africa where Juliet Peel gave her time and skills voluntarily in November.

Thanks to Peter Peel and Roger Burkey for their words last weekend when they announced the appeal for the parish rooms and presbytery accommodation.
