These days just after Christmas remind us how indebted we are to all those parishioners who have helped in a special way during the weeks leading up to the Christmas celebrations. It is only fitting that a word of thanks be expressed to them because, without their generous availability, our liturgies would be the poorer. To recall all the details would be a demanding exercise but simply to point out the following might be a help as we express our gratitude:-

Children's Mass preparations (even though we don't know how many children will attend) – Cribs (inside & outside) for 2 churches – church cleaning – altar linen and cloths – choirs, readers, altar servers (with clean albs etc.), Eucharistic ministers – flower and church decorations – and the lots of other little concerns such as finding extension cables, screwdrivers, hammers, matches, hymn numbers, heating oil, etc., etc. We put a great deal into our preparations for Christmas in a family and, thanks to those willing parishioners, we are able to devote a lot of time and energy to our parish preparations. We are very grateful for that support and cooperation.

We are also very grateful to all who very kindly thought of us at this special time and showed this through their Mass & Christmas cards, gifts (liquid, material, financial, "spicy" & spiritual too!). We thank you for the Christmas Offerings and we realise at a time like this how privileged we are to serve the parish family day by day, week after week and, hopefully, for another New Year. So, thank you again!

*Yours in Christ,
Fr Hugh Deacon John*

New Year's Day is the day of prayer for peace in the Church; this special day was initiated by Pope Paul VI. There will be a collection for Pax Christi at the Bakewell Mass.

The Feast of the Epiphany is celebrated next weekend in the parishes of England & Wales. Christmastide comes to a close on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord (11th Jan.).

First Friday is celebrated next Friday with Mass at 11.30 in Hassop. Usually about 15 attend this Mass.

January Diary (part):

6th Fr Vincent Griffin's Golden Jubilee: he hopes to visit the parish so we'll have a "little occasion" when he comes!

15th PPC in the presbytery at 7-30pm;
19th Monday evening R.E. meeting at 5pm in the presbytery – c/o Jane and Fr Hugh. It is open to all and never too late!

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Teresa Fidler, Maureen Davis, Anthony Culshaw, Clair Harrison, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Mary Sheldon, Rita Mann and Fr Denis Paxman.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for John Gannon, Thomas Cassells, John Nugent and Mrs Ann McMorrow, Mother of Una Warrington, who died just before Christmas. May their souls rest in peace.
