When Christians pray together, the goal of unity seems closer. The long history of Christians marked by many divisions seems to converge once more because it tends towards that Source of its unity which is Jesus Christ. He "is the same yesterday, today and forever!" (Heb 13:8). In the fellowship of prayer in the Spirit-Consoler whom he promised and then bestowed on his Church in the Upper Room in Jerusalem, when he established her in her original unity.

John Paul II: Ut Unum Sint

January Diary:

12th St Vincent de Paul Society will meet after the 9.30am Mass (Monday) in the presbytery. Perhaps this new time will "tempt" one or two new members to come along.

19th R.E. meeting at 5.00pm in the presbytery – open to all who would like to come along especially our younger parishioners. Jane and Fr Hugh will be present and other possible teachers are most welcome.

Mseleni Children's Home: through the SVP's donation of the collection from Ron Simpson's Requiem Mass and with additional donations we are able to send £250 to the children's home attached to the hospital in KwaZulu Natal where Juliet Peel worked in November. Thank you very much for your generosity. This will enable work to continue on the upgrading of the facilities for the children in the home. Some are orphans others are there so that they can complete their schooling. There is also a separate project that supports the orphans in the community who have been adopted by siblings or grandparents.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Andrew Dathan, Nora Kennedy, Elizabeth Keeley, Anne Bell, Ida Millar, Stephen Mulvey and Ann Marsh. May their souls rest in peace.
