'The date on which the feast of the Assumption is celebrated (15th August) is probably connected with the dedication of some church to the Blessed Virgin Mary. In the C of E the feast disappeared from the BCP in 1549 but it is now observed in many places. In parts of the Anglican Communion it is the main feast of the BVM.'

Parish Rooms events: On 12th September we have an African Evening in the parish rooms at 7.30pm. Tickets are on sale this weekend. Talks, punch and canapés, African food and music, bar and wine.

Also, please remember the Parish Auction on 24th October. Fr Hugh handed a letter to all parishioners present at the three weekend Masses recently. Copies of it are addressed and available for those parishioners not with us when the letter was distributed. Please take your copy, along with the auction form, with you!

We have 78 members in the parish 100 Club. If you recently took a membership form away with you and haven't yet completed it, now is the time to do so! Last week's winners were Jane Horton, Peggy Gillan, Helen Hoare and Alex Bendefy. Mary Pickard is the parish expert on this topic and will give you free advice on request!
