'You are my Son, the beloved'. These are the words heard from heaven when Jesus allowed John the Baptist to baptise him in the Jordan showing he was one of us. We are told plainly the identity of Jesus; he was God and man. 'You are my son, the beloved.' We may not hear these words at our own baptism but our faith tells us that this is what happens at each of our baptisms. We need to rediscover more and more our true identity given to us at baptism- that of the Beloved Child of God, This is referred to many times in the ceremony of baptism. Jesus, then, should be the centre of our lives. Let us pray that the truth that we are really and truly children of God have an impact on our lives.

Thanks: Once again we would like to express our deep gratitude to all who helped in our two churches over the Christmas period. The weather made extra demands on our patience and understanding and we are conscious that so many Parishioners put themselves out to decorate the churches and make them look so beautiful. To those who cleaned & prepared, to those who practised Tuesday after Tuesday in our cold choir loft, to the Altar Servers who turned up even when it was very cold, to the Welcomers, Readers and Eucharistic Ministers and to all who did their little bit we say, "thank you for all that you did and for your availability just to be 'there'."

We would also like to thank you for your kind and thoughtful Christmas and New Year greetings, for your cards and gifts, the "goodies" and bottles of this or that type of 'holy water' (!!) and for the Christmas offerings to the clergy of the parish. Our very sincere thanks to you all.

Fr Hugh

Deacon John
