When Christians pray together, the goal of unity seems closer. The long history of Christians marked by many divisions seems to converge once more because it tends towards that Source of its unity which is Jesus Christ. He "is the same yesterday, today and forever!" (Heb 13:8). In the fellowship of prayer in the Spirit-Consoler, whom Christ promised and then bestowed on his Church in the Upper Room in Jerusalem, he established her in her original unity.
John Paul II: Ut Unum Sint

Many thanks to all who responded to the appeal for Haiti taken last weekend. You will see the result was very generous.

Parish Diary

24th Joint service this evening at English Martyrs, Bakewell at 6pm. It is the opening service for the week of prayer for Christian Unity and we are asked to give a little time for this special sign of unity. Refreshments follow. Other services take place this week: please see notice boards.

27th 7.30pm Liturgy Committee in Parish Rooms. The Committee members will do a review of our Advent & Christmas Seasons, the new Mass schedule for Christmas and the Advent Penitential Service held in Hassop on 19th Dec.

30/31st 2nd Collection for the Sick & Retired Priests of the Diocese for whom the Bishop has a special responsibility.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is celebrated in our faith communities in Bakewell in the Friends' meeting House:

Monday, 25th and Thursday, 28th January at 6.45pm followed by coffee and biscuits

Tuesday, 26th and Wednesday, 27th at 12.30pm followed by soup and a roll.

Pie - Pea – Quiz - Puddy Evening planned with our families in mind takes place on Saturday 13th February (just before Lent begins!) at Ashford-in-the-Water Memorial Hall. These evenings are much appreciated and a lot of preparation goes into them so, please, support the evening. Proceeds from the ticket sales etc. benefit our parish. Tickets are £8.00 but there are special rates for families because we would like it to be a family evening.

Rita Mann: Following Rita's funeral Mass £500 has been sent to India on behalf of the SVP. Rita was the correspondent for this project. Many thanks to all who supported the appeal.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Dick Tommason, Francis Power, Anthony Kennedy, Ilona Sallymoss, Eric Pugh and Brigid Cregan. May their souls rest in peace.

Second Ampleforth Parish Retreat: 15th -17th March. Posters and flyers are at the back of the churches. Those who attended last time were set the challenge to take at least one new person with them this time!

Marriage & Family Life Commission (for our Diocese) will hold its annual Mass on Sunday, 14th February at 3pm in the Cathedral with Bishop Malcolm. It would be lovely if some of married couples would go along to represent our parish. Deacon John and Elizabeth are attending and will help with further information.

Parish Ministries are always important for the life of any parish. We will always need Parishioners who are willing to do their little bit to help. Readers, Altar Servers, Eucharistic Ministers, Choir Members and all the other tasks we have in a parish need support. Please consider what service you would like to undertake and, then, come forward to talk about it. Leaders of the different Parish Ministries are mentioned at the end of the Parish Directory.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults is more widely known as the RCIA and every diocese in the world will have some structure to welcome adults into full Communion with the Church. If we have any adults who wish to enquire or even go a step further, please contact Fr Hugh or Deacon John and we will do our best to be of assistance. You don't have to be a theologian to do this – nor do you have to be a saint ... but you would like to be one some day!

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember, Anthony Culshaw, Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Mary Sheldon and Joe Burns.

We also remember Stephane Doge CSSp a victim in the Haiti earthquake.
