'Maximilian Maria Kolbe spontaneously came forward and declared himself ready to go to death in place of the (married man & father of children) selected PoW in July 1941. His life was ended with a lethal injection on August 14th 1941. All this happened in the camp of Auschwitz and Sister Edith Stein was also a victim at the same camp in 1942. Pope John Paul II referred to such heroes as martyrs of love, for, from God alone comes such heroism and courage.'

Sunday 15th August: Healing Service at the Bakewell Methodist Church at 6pm. All welcome and our parish has been asked to provide a reader for the service.

Monday 30th August the "summer" Bank Holiday Mass will be at 11.30am.

LOOKING AHEAD TO SEPTEMBER

Liturgy Committee meets on 1st September in presbytery at 7.30pm.

Parish Pastoral Council meets on 2nd September in presbytery at 7.30pm

CSSp Council Meeting 7-9th September

Finance Committee meets on 14th September in presbytery at 7.30pm

Social Committee meets on 28th at 1-00pm in presbytery

On Sunday 29th August: We host an unusual celebration at All Saints Hassop. The Longshaw Sheep Dog Trials Association will have its annual Thanksgiving Service during our 10.30am Mass. There will be a very well behaved little doggie and a number of visitors for the occasion. Mass will be as normal but there will be special readings and hymns for the occasion. Refreshments will follow the Mass in the parish rooms.

Parish 100 Club Winners last weekend were M. Hudson, L. Brooks, E. Simpson and M. Cosgrove. We had visitors from Ireland with us last week and they came for refreshments ... and enjoyed them. They were almost the last to leave the presbytery! Thanks to Mary Pickard for keeping the 100 Club information and membership together for us. New members are invited to join every month ... but not many do, it has to be said.

The Rev. David Briggs is the new Minister for the Methodist community in Bakewell. On Wednesday 1st September there will be a Welcome Service for David in the Methodist church at 7.30pm. Once again, we would like our parish to be represented at this service.

The Apostleship of the Sea has written to thank us for our parish collection (£131.91) held to help the A of S.

Our Parish Website has been updated and includes the new September Mass schedule. Have a look at it and, if you can suggest improvements, don't be afraid to speak out! We thank "young" John Hague for attending to this on our behalf. Also, the site for Hassop Village looks very nice and includes a photo of the church.

The Parish Choir continues to meet on Tuesday evenings and recently three new members have joined which brings the total membership to about 14 when all are present. The door is always open for new members.

We have one new Eucharistic Minister who will attend the course of training at Crich in early October.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Anthony Culshaw, Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Mary Sheldon, Joe Burns, Gerry Birmingham, Michael and Shirley Plant.

Anniversaries: - We pray this week especially for Florence Gannon, Ann Cosgrove and, also, for Mrs Ellen Greenhalgh whose Funeral Mass took place on Friday.

May their souls rest in peace.
