This Sunday is World Mission Sunday: there will be a 2nd collection after Holy Communion. Gift Aid envelopes are available for this collection and we are asked to support it.

Next Weekend We celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints transferred from the Monday.

For 2nd November – All Souls Day we shall have one Mass at 9.30am in Bakewell and a second Mass at 11.30am in Hassop. This is a special when we remember all who have been part of our journey and gone before us.

Boxes of Hope have been packed and prepared by a small group of very willing hands. You will be very impressed by what has been achieved by Jane and her Team. Altogether, they have prepared 45 boxes and donations were £160.00 plus other donated gifts and boxes.

Saturday 6th November we'll have our Remembrance Mass at 11.00am and, if the weather is kind to us, we might even visit our cemetery for a prayer afterwards. Normally we invite friends and relatives to come back for this Mass.

On the same day Amnesty International is hosting a seminar to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the Human Rights Act. The seminar takes place in the Methodist Church Hall Bank Rd Matlock from 1.30 to 5p.m. A number of distinguished speakers have been invited.

Welcomers This is the last weekend for the 'head count'. Last weekend we had 121 present for weekend Masses and, on the same weekend last year, we had 128.

A date for your diaries:

'Blessed John Henry Newman and the Education of the Laity'.

A talk by Prof. Edward Hulmes
Wednesday, 8th December 2010 at 7.30pm
in the Parish Rooms, All Saints' Church, Hassop
Followed by refreshments

Saturday 27th November we have the Christmas Fayre in Bakewell Town Hall which is in the process of being refurbished. Raffle Tickets are already available in both churches and, as always, if the cash prizes are donated, this helps the raffle to be a success. Many thanks! You will be invited to prepare for the Fayre in the coming weeks.

A Study Weekend 5-7th November has been arranged at the Opus Dei house Macclesfield. Further information from Louise Kirk on 01298 78318 or on 01260 224219.

Parish Catholic Diaries are available in both churches and packets of Christmas cards, having a picture of the church taken last Christmas with a Christmas and New Year greeting, will also be available in the next week or two.

Parish 100 Club is running behind time this month due to illness but it has been arranged for this weekend. A Reminder! It is the season to be 100 Club friendly and renew subscriptions, please. We are still looking for new members and reminding the folks who took a form away that they can't win until they complete the form! We are grateful to all who support it and enjoy the few minutes of friendship when the draw takes place.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Anthony Culshaw, Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Mary Sheldon, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael and Shirley Plant.

We Remember all our deceased Parishioners, Priests, Family members in the prayer of the Eucharist.

Time to move forward on flower rotas! Mary Pickard keeps the Bakewell group together and Liz Marsh is willing to be the Hassop coordinator. If you are willing to help with this parish service, please give your name to either Mary Pickard or Liz Marsh. Some people are asking about the monetary arrangements ... they have to be considered and some people start off by reading the bulletin's weekly collection information! A budget will have to be fixed so that the expenses are part of the parish expenditure with invoices given when expenses are paid. I am ready to go forward with this new idea mentioned at the last PPC and we await a response from interested Parishioners. Thanks again! Fr Hugh
