'The purpose of the Sacraments is to sanctify men and women, to build up the Body of Christ and to give worship to God. They are called Sacraments of Faith ... the faithful should understand these signs.'

Diary of the month:

Next Saturday evening we have the Pie & Pea & Quiz Evening beginning at 7.15pm in Ashford-in-the-Water village hall. Tickets are available – adult and child rates apply. We hope you will help to make it a family evening and a success. So far about 65 tickets have been sold.

Desserts urgently needed for next Saturday evening – cakes, crumbles, trifles, etc. So that everybody does not make the same dessert, please get in touch with Virginia Hope on 01629 815 315 to discuss what you will make. Many thanks in advance for your help and apologies for the suddenness of this request – it was forgotten last week.

Sunday 27th Feb. at the Parish Church Bakewell we have the first of the "Living Our Vision" events from 2.30 until 5.00pm in Bakewell Parish Church. This will be the first of the four events planned for 2011; these are intended as ecumenical gatherings with contributions from the different faith communities of the town. It is important that we are represented: could parishioners going please let Fr Hugh know? One parishioner has so far agreed to attend, but we do need to have a few who will represent us at the remaining three events. The dates are given in the leaflet 'Living our vision' available in both churches.

At the recent Liturgy Committee meeting a number of suggestions were made and these especially concern preparations for the new translation of the Mass due later this year. We plan to hold group sessions so that the different parish groups can come along and be prepared for the new liturgy. Roger, Linda, Anne and Juliet have earlier on participated in some preparation at Mackworth. The ball will be in our court to try to prepare as a parish community and, of course, the group sessions will not exclude any parishioners who wish to come along.

Parish 100 Club took place last Sunday: we have 77 members and would like to see this increase. A few parishioners have not renewed their membership and, if this is due to an oversight, please contact Mary Pickard to make sure your numbers are still in the "box". Non-parishioners who come frequently are also invited to become members. We are looking for people! We are grateful to Mary for keeping it together. Last week's winners were A. Bendefy, M. Etchells, S. Plant and W. McDermott. – may they enjoy their little windfall!

Lent Groups are being planned and Anne Shimwell has kindly agreed to host a group, but not to lead it. Would somebody like to undertake this act of service?

Professor Edward Hulmes has kindly agreed to give his talk on 'Cardinal Newman and the Formation of the Laity' on Thursday 7th April in the presbytery. Originally, this talk was planned for last Advent, but, due to the weather, we had to postpone it. Edward has kindly given us this new date.

John Butler of Bakewell will be available to guide interested people on aspects of prayer. The gathering takes place on Tuesday evening at 7.00pm in the Newark Rooms of the Parish Church, Bakewell. More information is available there next Tuesday evening.

St Joseph's School Matlock is planning its September intake. At present new admissions are not very numerous and the Headteacher and School Governors would like us to know that some problems are foreseen if the numbers remain uncertain and inadequate. If we have any parents who would like to have more information, please call the school on 01629 583 616 and ask for Mr Scott.

The Chrism Mass with Bishop Malcolm will be in the Cathedral at 11.00am on Wednesday 20th April. Some parishioners may wish to attend and have lunch afterwards. Roger Burkey is our parish contact. If you would like to attend and have lunch, please let Roger know as soon as possible. Lunch is not free!!

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Anthony Culshaw, Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael and Shirley Plant and all our sick parishioners and friends.

Anniversaries: – We remember Ivy Tower this week, as well as Maureen Soares and Pamela Tinker who died in recent days. May their souls rest in peace
