Sunday 27th Feb. at the Parish Church Bakewell

we have the first of the "Living Our Vision" events from 2.30 until 5.00pm in Bakewell Parish Church. This will be the first of the four events planned for 2011; these are intended as ecumenical gatherings with contributions from the different faith communities of the town. It is important that we are represented: could parishioners going please let Fr Hugh know? One parishioner has so far agreed to attend, but we do need to have a few who will represent us at the remaining three events. The dates are given in the leaflet 'Living our vision' available in both churches.

Professor Edward Hulmes has kindly agreed to give his talk on 'Cardinal Newman and the Formation of the Laity' on Thursday 7th April in the presbytery. Originally, this talk was planned for last Advent, but, due to the weather, we had to postpone it. Edward has kindly given us this new date.

Lent Jars will be available next weekend for those who would like to take a jar home and drop in the alms from their Lenten good works. At the end of Lent, the proceeds will be sent to help the small Christian Community in Pakistan. Fr Michael Liston CSSp is our contact man in Pakistan and will furnish us with local information.

Lent Groups are being planned and Anne Shimwell has kindly agreed to host a group, but not to lead it. Would somebody like to undertake this act of service? Various other House Groups will meet during Lent and, if you need further information, please contact Fr Hugh.

The Chrism Mass with Bishop Malcolm will be in the Cathedral at 11.00am on Wednesday 20th April. Some parishioners may wish to attend and have lunch afterwards. Roger Burkey is our parish contact. If you would like to attend and have lunch, please let Roger know as soon as possible. Lunch is not free!!

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gents, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael and Shirley Plant and all our sick parishioners and friends

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Carmel Goddard, Kathleen Chambers and Maureen Crabbe. May their souls rest in peace
