Diary of the month:

19/20th Family Fast Day envelopes are brought back to the weekend Masses.

21st R.E. Group meets in presbytery at 5.15pm c/o Jane.

23rd Eucharistic Ministers meet in presbytery at 7.30pm

24th Mass at St. Thomas More School, Buxton

27th Clocks go forward (next weekend)

29th Finance Committee in presbytery at 7.30pm

Easter Retreat for young people at The Briars youth centre. Dates are 21-24th April. See the posters in both churches if interested.

And another Easter Retreat for the "oldies" at the Diocesan Centre, Mackworth, with Fr John Trenchard CSsR. Date 9th April – Time 10.00am to 3.30pm. You must book.

Climate Week is observed 21-28th March – it's our world.

Power Point Projector needed: As preparations continue for the 'New Mass', Roger Burkey is reviewing the DVD that the Diocese has sent to every parish. If you can lend us the equipment needed for an evening or two, we will be very grateful. If you can help, please let Roger know because we are planning some preparatory sessions in May. Roger, Linda, Anne and Juliet all attended an earlier workshop on the new translation and text of the Mass: they didn't think there were too many changes.

Dates for your calendars

7th April at 7.30pm in the presbytery Prof. Edward Hulmes' talk 'Cardinal Newman and the Formation of the Laity' will be given,

20th April Chrism Mass & lunch in Nottingham (we need to know the numbers),

24-26th June Ampleforth retreat (please contact Peter Peel)

2nd July our Summer Fair – a new date may be sought.

A Canterbury Pilgrimage organised by the De Paul UK will take place at Pentecost (11-13th June 2011). Further details on notice boards.

Parish 100 Club Winners last Sunday were A. O'Connor, J. Peel, G. Heyes and J. Rider. We have presently 75 members, some of whom live outside the parish and don't attend regularly but support it, and we take this opportunity to thank all who are 100 Club members. We repeat the invitation for our regular parishioners and non-parishioners to join the club.

Julia Palmer from the Diocesan Catechetics office will visit Hassop/Bakewell on 31st March to see how we are handling modern catechetics in rural Derbyshire. Happily we can tell her about our Monday evening effort for younger parishioners which Jane looks after and the Sunday morning effort for the few children we have at Mass which Éilis looks after. So far this year, we have no younger parishioners in Sacramental classes and we have no adults preparing for reception into the Church at Easter. If you would like to suggest anything or even offer your thoughts about the above, please do so in writing and send to Fr Hugh – it can, of course, be confidential.

And in the light of the above – 'R.E. is being killed off, say academics' was the headline in the Daily Telegraph (p.10) on 12th March. "High quality religious education lessons face being killed off because of teaching cuts and the subject's exclusion from new-style school league tables." Don't be afraid to write to your local M.P.

Liturgical Music in our Cathedral: there will be a morning to help/improve/open up new ideas on Saturday 9th April at St Barnabas'. This would be an excellent little break for a choir member or two, or even a liturgy committee member or two especially for those now thinking of joining the parish Liturgy Committee!!

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael and Shirley Plant and all our sick parishioners who are in hospital.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Joe Wilson and Sister Bernard of the Matlock Presentation Sisters who died last Thursday.

May their souls rest in peace.
