Important Date Change: Because of the annual Bakewell carnival, the date of our Parish Summer Fair has been changed. The fair now takes place on 11th June.

A Parishioner, a retired R. E. teacher, rightly pointed that we do more for catechetics and faith formation than was mentioned in last week's bulletin! The talks by Prof. Hulmes, the Ampleforth retreats, the ecumenical outreach and other things as well all help in this area. So, thank you!

Received this week from the Hassop Parish Meeting (not our church!) a cheque for £250.00 as a contribution to the recent cemetery repairs and a further cheque from the Peak Park for the same amount for the same purpose. Whilst we of the parish had to pay the invoices as they came in, in fact our parish contribution to the £4,618.00 paid out was £232.65p. So we are very grateful to all who helped us out.

Rite to Life and Society for the Protection of Unborn Children frequently send literature and information to the parish. This is usually made available for parishioners. Nottingham Diocese has a Marriage & Family Life Commission guided by Fr John Sherrington. Perhaps we should think of inviting Fr John to come for a visit?

Don't Forget that the Fridays of Lent are days when we abstain from something and encourage the younger parishioners to put something in their Lent jars. We are also reminded by the Bishop about our Easter Duties.

Liturgical Music in our Cathedral: there will be a morning to help/improve/open up new ideas on Saturday 9th April at St Barnabas' Cathedral. This would be an excellent little break for a choir member or two, or even a liturgy committee member or two to attend.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael and Shirley Plant. During these days we also remember Chris Holmes who has been unwell recently. We wish Chris a very speedy recovery

On his Anniversary we remember Joe Wilson, the husband of Agnes.

Recent Bereavements: Joan Cain's Mother, Ivy Stenson, died last weekend: her funeral takes place on Tuesday. Janet Byrne's father and his brother died within hours of each other last Sunday. To Joan & Brian, to Janet & Tony and their families we offer our prayerful sympathy at this time of mourning.
