Altar Servers can we meet on 21st April at 10.30am in Bakewell, please? Apologies for short notice. Fr Hugh

Amber Valley Deanery Penitential Service times on notice boards: ours is at 7.00pm on Tuesday 19th April.

New Liturgy: Will be presented on 11th May and 26th May at 7.30pm in the parish rooms. Please keep one of these evenings free, more details nearer the date.

The Sisters of St. Joseph of Peace are offering a "Come & See" Retreat Day on May 28th for single young adult Catholic women. Further details on notice boards.

Nottingham Diocesan Spirituality Network is offering a spirituality course organised by Sister Bernadette PBVM. There are a number of sessions planned for this year. Further details on notice boards.

You will see that we have a display board and photos in both churches giving you some information about our Lent mission project following on the floods in Pakistan last summer. Jane has put these together and, whilst lots of other world situations are in today's headlines, we adopted this mission project last Advent and the pennies are mounting. You still have opportunities through the Lent jars, the Friday soups and the donations boxes to help. Next weekend the jars will be collected.

Next Month: Anthony Kilbride, on holiday from Haiti will talk to us about his life and work experience there 18 months after the earthquake on Sunday 8th May after the 10.00am Mass in Hassop. Anthony is the son of Cathy & Tim Kilbride and has visited the parish before.

Our very grateful thanks to Prof. Edward Hulmes and Shirley for our Newman talk last Thursday evening. About 25 people turned up and it was a very pleasant evening.

Sick and Housebound: In prayer we remember Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant along with Chris Holmes. Chris sends greetings to all our parishioners.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Fr Dennis Paxman and our deceased parishioners and priests of the parish. May their souls rest in peace
