Diary of the month:

23rd R.E. group c/o Jane (this Monday!)

26th (7.30pm in parish rooms) second evening to look at the new Mass translation we shall be using later this year. Roger Burkey has put a lot of time into preparing the evening. We suggest the Choir, PPC and Welcomers attend. All parishioners who can are also invited so, please, do your very best to come along as part of the parish family.

28-29th A pastoral letter will be read at each Mass dealing with the new translation mentioned above.

For Young People Between 16 – 30 Years a weekend at St Mary's College Oscott for young people from 17 – 19th June. Further details on notice boards or from Fr Hugh.

Parish Retreat: Takes place next month in Ampleforth 24-26th June. Flyers are available this weekend and Peter Peel is the contact person for arrangements. Peter will very soon have to give the final list to the monastery so, please, let Peter know if you intend to go.

Walsingham Pilgrimage takes place on 19th June. See notice boards for the programme.

First Holy Communions have recently been mentioned at our last liturgy meeting. Parents of young parishioners are invited to contact Fr Hugh if they would like their children to be prepared for First Communion. At present we have possibly two youngsters in mind for this and, if parents are happy, we shall come up with a plan for a Sunday morning catechesis after 10.00am Mass.

The Right to Life can be contacted at P.O. Box 26264 London W3 9WF or you could always do a search on the Internet. In a recent newsletter there was a comment about the BBC's pro-euthanasia campaign and a comment about a pro-euthanasia film to be shown during the summer.

Parish Summer Fair is taking shape! The Social Committee is working round the clock to make sure everything is ready ... and we are very grateful to them for all their hard work. Raffle tickets are available and, as is usually done, a request is made for the three cash prizes of the raffle. This is a great help. Last weekend we were offered the first prize – thank you again! We will need the usual items – cakes, bottles, bric-a-brac, jewellery, preserves, raffle prizes and lots of other things as well. It's only three weeks away now!

David Hay's book God's Biologist will be launched on 25th June in St Peter's Anglican Church Nottingham. David is a scientist and Catholic. It could be interesting!

The Parish Weekly Envelope Boxes are available this weekend and the "new year" begins on 4/5th June. The letter that is usually distributed at the same time as the envelopes is being prepared by Tony Byrne and Nigel Trend has very kindly accepted to learn the ropes about our parish Gift Aid 'corner'. We are very grateful to Nigel for agreeing to help the parish and we are, also, very grateful to Tony Byrne who has looked after our Gift Aid scheme for a good number of years.

Sent to the Diocese for recent collections £310.27 and to the CSSp Pakistan Mission £887.76 the results of our Lent Offerings. Many thanks to all who helped.

The Briars Open Day is on Sunday 26th June. It starts with Mass at 1.00pm and it would be good if somebody could go along and represent our parish for us.
