Pope Benedict XVI thinking of Grandparents says: "A point for reflection comes from the liturgical commemoration of Saints Joachim and Anne, parents of Our Lady, and therefore, grandparents of Jesus. This occasion makes us think of the subject of EDUCATION which has an important place in the pastoral work of the Church. In particular, it invites us to pray for grandparents, who, in the family, are the repositories and often witnesses of the fundamental values of life. The EDUCATIONAL TASK of grandparents is always very important, and it becomes even more so when, for various reasons the parents are unable to provide their children with an adequate presence while they are growing up."

Mr James A Marples KHS from Texas U.S.A. has written to tell us that his great-grandfather was born in Baslow and later emigrated to the United States and asks that we remember the Marples family in our prayers.

Julia Palmer is our Diocesan Coordinator of Catechetics and she is arranging a day for Catechists. It will be on Saturday 19th November this year! This would be an excellent opportunity for some of us to explore and enjoy a little bit the vocation of being Catechists. There will be plenty of further information as we go nearer the date but, if you would like to attend, reserve the date now. Bishop Malcolm is strongly encouraging all parishes to send delegates to Newark for this excellent initiative. Fr Hugh hopes to attend so there will be room in his car.

Summer Cycling for beginners, teenagers and even all ages is organised by PEDALREADY and is based around Bakewell and Hassop Station. More info. on notice boards.

It's Summer Time & the livin' is easy! A few days ago a circular with accompanying notices arrived addressed to Fr O'Neill. It's inviting 'unattached Catholics' to join their mailing list. We all hope and pray that Fr O'Neill is not unattached but rather very much attached to us still! If you're interested about what is on offer, their website is www.CATHUD.COM

Sick and Housebound: We remember Mary Lee, Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant and Chris Holmes.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for our deceased parishioners and family members. We also think of Pat (Margaret's sister) whose funeral Mass was celebrated on Friday. May their souls rest in peace
