Tuesday, 18th and Wednesday, 19th October at 12.30 followed by soup and a roll

Thursday, 20th at 6.45pm followed by tea/coffee and the ABC AGM at 7.30pm.

Some November dates for your diaries

3rd November at 7.30pm in presbytery, Frank Stone will give a talk on being a Prisoner of War and the Great Escape.

5th November Annual Mass for deceased families, friends and parishioners at 11.30am in Hassop.

19th November Day for Catechists in Newark

26th November, Christmas Fair in Bakewell Town Hall

27th we have our own ecumenical afternoon/evening which is being put together by Roger and his team and will end with a Taizé Service.

Many Thanks to all who attended our recent parish meetings, who attend our PPC, liturgy, choir meetings so regularly and to all who helped with the recent Deanery meeting. Without the back-up, things would just grind to a halt.

The final phase on the ground floor of the presbytery has begun. There will be an improved disabled access and W.C. through the garage entrance. There will be direct access to the parish kitchen instead of passing through the office. The kitchen facilities will be improved and the office will be made secure. The front door will have two handrails put in place in the near future. The cemetery needed some repairs on a wall and on one of the benches there. Some improvements to the gates are being considered. And, sad to report to you all, none of this is free!!!!!!

Our statistics: last weekend we had 47 people at the evening Mass and 58 at the morning Mass, giving us a total of 107. The same weekend last year we had 110.

The petitions regarding sexual education of children are still available for signing and will be posted next week.

Raffle Tickets are available in both churches

Sick and Housebound: We remember Carole Petts, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Joe Burns, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes and Mary Greensmith (Kate Howard's Mother). Deacon John is having a few days of respite care and we continue to carry John in our prayers.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for John Skidmore and Derek Wilson. May their souls rest in peace!
