The £75.00 and £50.00 for the 1st two prizes have already been received – many thanks to our generous supporters. The Fair begins at 12.00noon and finishes by mid-afternoon.

27th 1st Sunday of Advent we have our own ecumenical afternoon/evening, which is being put together by Roger and team and will end with a Taizé Service beginning at 4pm followed by refreshments. You may be invited to help.

Parish Directory is being updated and forms are available to fill in. It is a most useful little tool to have at hand. It is meant to help our parishioners but regular visitors can fill in forms if they wish especially if they participate in parish life.

At the time of receiving Holy Communion, the Bishops' Conference has asked all the faithful receiving the Body and the Blood of Christ in the Eucharist to be particularly respectful, even to show a sign of respect. It is not the time then for distractions or intrusive actions. We are all invited to be attentive to the importance of taking the Eucharist.

Boxes of Hope have been prepared over the past 2 weeks thanks to Jane and her co-workers. Forty-one boxes have left the shores of Hassop/Bakewell and £135.00 was given in donations to help to equip the boxes. Grateful thanks!

Advent 2011- December 2012 Sunday Missals are available (10 of them!) at £5.00 per copy. Good to look at!

Parish Statistics last weekend saw the biggest difference in our numbers so far this year. Altogether for both Masses we were only 99 people present. Last year for the same weekend we had 134 present. Our weekend Mass is meant to be a commitment on our part. If a celebrant did not show up for the liturgy, there would be many comments!
