April Diary of the month:

1st With Palm Sunday we begin the ceremonies of Holy Week. Please note the times of our ceremonies given above and they can be checked on the parish website which is maintained by a small but generous group of volunteers.

4th Chrism Mass with the Bishop and a small group of parishioners will attend to represent our parish.

6th Good Friday evening at 8.00pm the Stations of the Cross from the Colosseum in Rome will be broadcast on the EWTN network. The Pope usually leads this meditation which is very well attended and, this year, the meditation has been prepared by a married couple.

14th 3rd Confirmation group meeting at 10.30am in Bakewell church. All 6 candidates are invited and expected!

16th CSSp province retreat

18th S V P meeting in parish rooms after Service

26th Our parish meeting to reflect on You are Living Stones at 7.00pm in the parish rooms. Please note, this is not the PPC meeting that was in our earlier bulletins. It is in fact a general meeting and, the more participants we have, the better especially for any feed-back to be given to the Deanery meeting on 30th April. Again, please note the time is 7.00pm, a little earlier than our usual parish meetings.

30th Deanery meeting at Crich

30th R E group meets in parish rooms at 5.15pm c/o Jane.

The Holy Week booklets are available for the different ceremonies. Somebody asked the other day, "Do we need them ?" If the Liturgy is a priority in our worship and having in mind the new translations recently introduced, it seems highly desirable to have a little booklet that could help us participate in the different Liturgies of Holy Week.

This weekend we have a retiring collection to help with altar preparations for Easter. Many thanks for your help!

Envelopes for Clergy Easter Offerings are available and the Easter Sunday envelopes are also used for this.

You will have a copy of the attachment prepared for our conversations surrounding You are Living Stones. Please complete the boxes so that we have some idea of your thoughts. If some of our younger parishioners would like to fill in their views on parish life, this would be greatly appreciated and could be some help for future planning.

Our grateful thanks go to all who helped in the events of this past week. The theatre trip that took place last Saturday, the R E group meeting on Monday, the lunch organised by the Social Committee on Wednesday, the Penitential Service on Thursday evening and all the other little bits of help that are offered in the parish – washing the altar linen, cleaning up after using the parish rooms and facilities, making sure taps are closed and lights switched off. We can, of course, improve always but some folks are very good at checking all these details – just like at home!

Any surplus donations from our Wednesday lunch will be added to the Lent fund that will be sent the improved water project for Marange mission in Zimbabwe. The Lent jars can be brought back now and donations can be made through the boxes proved in both church. Fr Brendan Smythe CSSp (as he did last year) has kindly agreed to be the channel through which our Lent offerings can be made.

Hassop Church cleaning for Easter is being planned for Wed. 4th April at 10.30am. Jane is coordinating it and, if you would like to help, please contact Jane. Bakewell church is looked after by Kathleen Colhoun and again, if you can help, please contact Kathleen for more details. Quite a lot of preparation has already taken place.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes, Janet Smith and Joan Mason along with all the sick of our families and friends.

Mrs Lesley-Ann Farmer who had some connection with our parish some years ago passed away last weekend. Her funeral service will take place on Tuesday at 10.45am in Hassop followed by cremation.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Rebecca Wiles and Geoffrey Barkworth. May their souls rest in peace.
