This weekend we welcome Fr Philip Marsh CSSp, our Provincial Superior in Britain. Fr Philip comes to minister to the parish whilst Fr Hugh is in Bickley for a CSSp meeting.

The CSSp Congregation has had a General Chapter in Bagamoyo (one of our very earliest missions in East Africa) and the confreres gathered in the chapter elected a new Superior General who is Fr John Fogarty of the Province of Ireland. He replaces Fr Jean-Paul Hoch whose term in office finishes in September. The capitulants have also elected the members of the General Council who will assist Fr Fogarty in the administration of the Congregation. We wish them all a very fruitful ministry in their service of Congregation throughout the world.

Diary of the month:

24 – 27th Holiday Fun Week in Bakewell

29th (next Sunday) we mark Day for Life there will be a second collection to help this work. Leaflets available.

August should be a quiet month! However ...

1 – 2nd Bakewell Show

14 – 15th Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady (a holy day of obligation still): we have the Vigil Mass at 7.00pm in Bakewell (14th) and feast day morning Mass at 10.00am in Hassop.

14th Outing to see The Mikado in Buxton – fully booked!

28th Parish Finance Committee meets at 7.30pm in the presbytery.

Fr Ken O'Riordan Many of you will remember Fr Ken from his time in Mackworth – he liked a bit of controversy! Sadly and to the surprise of so many in the Diocese, he died last Tuesday evening in Ireland where he had retired only about 2 years ago. It appears he has been suffering from a very aggressive form of leukaemia.

We also remember Fr Ken Martin CSSp whose funeral Mass was celebrated last Monday in his home parish of St Gregory in Chorley where he has been buried and Fr Harry Pass CSSp who passed away on Thursday morning.

Hassop Sunday Parking – please do use Hassop Hall.

Parish 100 Club Winners last Sunday were P Peel, K Rodrigues and B Goddard – and they all deserve it! Peter is now out of hospital.

A number of parishioners have served the parish community generously and loyally over the years. Gerry Smith as Treasurer, Jane Horton as Sacristan and Mary Pickard on the 100 Club. They have all graciously involved others in their different tasks which is a very good parish practice so that when a need arises we have others prepared to help out with what has to be done. Bernadette Goddard & Tessa Clarke have been learning from Gerry for a few months now; Jenny Paxman has helped Jane in the sacristy: Brian & Joan Cain have also kindly accepted to help here with Jenny. The 100 Club will be helped by Michael & Christine Allsop and they will over later this year. Thank you all once again for your parish service and help.

Nigel Trend is busy putting our Gift Aid information together for this, his second year, and has now completed the returns to be submitted to the Diocesan Office. However, we still need information about some envelopes.

Many copies of our In Touch Parish Magazine are still in both churches. It costs 60p and gives you a little flavour of parish life and we are grateful to the contributors and Editors. Thank you all! The next edition will be more expensive – do we continue to have it as our own parish In Touch?

Seasons of Faith is a one-day ecumenical gathering for reflection and sharing. It will take place on 15th September in Newark or on 22nd September in Rearsby.

As requested by the PPC, parish Gift Aid envelopes are now left on the benches for convenience and use.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Stella Clegg, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes, Nick Mosley, Janet Smith and Joan Mason along with all the sick of our families and friends.

Every celebration of the Mass is a celebration of Thanksgiving but, also, a prayer of intercession when we remember the deceased of the parish, our families, neighbours, friends especially those who have helped us on our own journey through life. It is a great moment to remember so many others.

May their souls rest in peace.
