"Sent by the Father and consecrated by the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ came to save all people. He continues in the world of today this mission of salvation of which the Church is the Sacrament. In the midst of God's people, among the numerous and varied vocations, which the Holy Spirit inspires, we Spiritans (Holy Ghost Fathers!) are called by the Father and "set apart" (Acts 13:2) to follow Jesus and to announce the Good News of the Kingdom." [CSSp Rule of Life ¶ 1]

Parish Pea & Pie and Quiz Evening takes place in Bakewell Town Hall next Saturday at 7.30pm. Tickets are available this weekend. The quiz evening is part of our parish social life and we would love to have your support for the event. Last time we had it on a Friday evening and it was not so successful. If you would like to help the occasion by providing a dessert, please let Virginia Hope know by next Friday at the latest. Many thanks! If you are unable to come, your dessert could represent you!!

Diary of the month:

16th Home Mission Sunday this weekend in England & Wales. There are little information cards available for you.

20th School Mass St Thomas More, Buxton (Fr Hugh) – no parish morning service in Bakewell.

22nd Parish Quiz evening in Bakewell Town Hall 7.30pm

26 – 27th (feast of St Vincent de Paul) CSSp Provincial Council meets in Hassop to prepare for the Provincial Chapter next month: morning Mass will be at 9.00am in Hassop church both mornings.

Boxes of Hope is now happening. Please see the flyer for details or ask Jane Horton about items that can be given.

2 Chesterfield Events – (1) Mass in the Eyre Chapel at 7.00pm on 18th Sept. and (2) a talk given by Fr Richard Taylor on 7th October arranged by the Catenians (12.15 to 4.00pm) reflecting on 50th Anniversary of Vatican II.

Brian Cain would like to thank all who sponsored him on his walk a few weeks back: Brian helped the Street Child of Sierra Leone to the tune of £1,150.00. Well done, Brian!

And glancing towards October! Deanery meeting in Hassop on 4th, Year of Faith proclaimed on 11th, Boxes of Hope brought weekend of 13-14th, Parish AGM after Mass on 14th and One World Week 14-20th. Lots more to come!

The PPC meeting last Thursday was a good meeting with 7 members present. We looked at parish life and reports were given on what we have done or will be doing. It was decided to try and do something "extra" for our younger parishioners and a suggestion was made about this. The members were surprised to learn that 37 of us use the envelope Gift Aid scheme and 26 use the parish a/c for their support of the parish. Our thanks to all who support the parish ... even when they are away.

Also at our PPC Meeting we mentioned the Diocesan Mass for the altar servers ... the date was not known last Wednesday ... but it is now! 20th October at 12.00 noon.

Parish 100 Club Winners were J Paxman, B & A O'Connor and J & J Hespe. It was our first Sunday with the new board of directors – Mike & Christine Allsop. They are looking for new members so be careful ... you!

If you are concerned about Nick Clegg's recent comments on "bigots", don't be afraid to let Patrick McLoughlin know it. E-mail addresses are found easily.

CathCom Reach has done very well with its first edition and a second one is being prepared. There was a very good article by 14 year old Hannah Kay on her brother Matthew who suffers from autism. Worth reading!

2013 Parish Diaries are available ... possibly for the last time. Please put the 50p in the papers' basket.

At ABC meeting last Thursday the organisers for the recent Christian Aid collection expressed their gratitude to all who supported the street collections in Bakewell. £546.05 was raised from the street collection, refreshments and stalls this week making a total of £1,100 with the May collection.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes, Nick Mosley, Janet Smith and Joan Mason. We remember our sick Holy Ghost brethren as well.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Peter Hespe, Florence Gannon and Margaret Allison.

May their souls rest in peace.
