Parish 100 Club Draw after 10.00am Mass in the parish rooms. It helps enormously if you return your renewal slip without delay. Thank you! We also thank Mike & Christine for taking on our 100 Club fund raising. Under Mary's stewardship in recent years, the parish has benefited to the tune of about £1,900 each year ...almost got to that £2,000 target. The CSSp province lottery took place in Bickley this week and Fr Hugh won 2nd prize – it doesn't make him a millionaire but he will celebrate with the only other 2 known members of the CSSp lottery from our parish!

Parish Finances You see the weekly statement about our parish Offertory collections and the special collections taken in the parish. You also see our Gift Aid returns. Thanks to all who support the parish and its financial needs. Our Gift Aid returns for 2 quarters have amounted to £3,572.32 and, again, gratitude to all who use our parish system. Do consider using it if you don't already do so – every little helps! The occasional white envelopes can be used by visitors and parishioners.

News Extra Bishop Malcolm's latest You-Tube video on the Year of Faith is worth watching. Find it on the website www.nottinghamdooroffaith.com

Christmas Fair takes place on 15th December 12.00 noon to about 3.00pm in Bakewell Town Hall. You can think about some preparations during these cold dark evenings! The Advent Reconciliation Service is on Sat. 8th December at 11.00am in Hassop and last R E group of the year takes place on 17th December.

Fr Michael Eastwood has been organising the weekend training for Eucharistic Ministers for many years and he is now undertaking a review of the training. If any E.M. has any comments or suggestions to make, please send them by e-mail to Fr Hugh c/o parish. It's the moment to do it!

Next Sunday (18th) another Faith in Bakewell 2012 takes place. This is supported by the Association of Bakewell Christians (ABC) and is a follow-up to the ecumenical talks we had last year in our church communities. There are information leaflets available in both churches. Also, our own community is responsible for the final meeting of this series on 2nd December in Bakewell English Martyrs.

Prisoners' Sunday is remembered on 18th November: Archbishop Vincent Nichols writes, "As president of PACT [Prison Advice & Care Trust] I commend the charity's work to you, and would be most grateful if you could join with me in prayer for all prisoners and their families". PACT invites the St Vincent de Paul Society to remember them and their mission on this Sunday in November.

Good News Distributors will have a tea party on 17th November in the Methodist Church Hall at 3.30pm. They are not getting any younger but they would love to have more helpers ... just strolling around the town in the afternoon once per month doing a little bit of service on behalf of the local churches. Any volunteers coming forward for this little task?

Hassop Road Works: You will see signs informing us that there will be road disruption around Hassop in November. We hope our weekend Mass schedule will not be unduly affected but you may need more time to get here and do please remember about Hassop Hall parking on Sundays until 11.30am. Thanks to all who use it! This is proving to be a huge help to our Sunday morning parking.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Christina Gents, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes, Janet Smith and Joan Mason. Fr Trevor Clarke remains critically ill and no further treatment seems possible for him.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Peter Short, Dorothy Dale, John Hodgkinson, Jack & Peggy Lowes and Donald Storrs-Fox. May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £208.30 Loose Plate £82.14 Total £290.44

Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
