Catechists Course in Matlock: Six members of our church have been attending the course. We just completed the third session. The course has encouraged us to consider different stages of our faith development. From the beginning, we have been influenced by our parents, teachers, nuns, priests and those around us, particularly our Church Family. During the sessions, we have 5 minute group-discussions and this has helped us to be more open about our faith. We are asked to do reflective logs after each session which we send to Eleanora O'Donnell. [M E for the Group]

This Sunday (18th) another Faith in Bakewell 2012 takes place. This is supported by the Association of Bakewell Christians (ABC) and is a follow-up to the ecumenical talks we had last year in our church communities. There are information leaflets available in both churches and people are free to come and go at different times during the proceedings. Also, our own community is responsible for the final meeting of this series on Sunday, 2nd December in Bakewell English Martyrs. Our parish choir is already preparing for the Taizé Service that follows the meeting at 6pm.

Prisoners' Sunday is remembered today – an opportunity for us to remember all those in prison, some unjustly detained, and their families especially children.

Bishop Malcolm's latest YouTube video for the Year of Faith is worth watching. Find it on the diocesan website www.nottinghamdooroffaith.com

The Logo for the Year of Faith which you have seen on the various flyers and our souvenir card already given out is explained as follows: "The Logo is composed of a square, a bordered field, a boat with a mast and sails encircled by the sun. The square represents the world, the boat the Church, the sails with the letters IHS the Holy Name of Jesus, the mast the Cross and the sun the Holy Eucharist." Perhaps you have already spotted this symbolism in the Logo ... and perhaps you have not! Now you know!!

Christmas Fair takes place on 15th December 12.00 noon to about 3.00pm in Bakewell Town Hall. You can think about some preparations during these cold dark evenings and raffle tickets are available. Donations to the 2nd and 3rd cash prizes would help to make the raffle a success. The 1st prize has already been given – thank you!

The Advent Reconciliation Service is on Sat. 8th December at 11.00am in Hassop (see notice boards) and last R E group of the year is on 17th December c/o Jane.

Parish 100 Club Winners last Sunday were A. Clarke, J. Rider and G & S Smith. Grateful thanks to all who participate in the draw after Mass and to club members.

Various Ecumenical events are planned as we move into the Advent season and prepare for Christmas. Last Thursday evening at the ABC meeting, Fr Hugh was the sole representative from our parish community because the other regular members excused themselves with apologies. This Sunday we are again invited to support our commitment to ecumenism and, perhaps, our PPC meeting next Thursday will address this matter and our response. Fifty years after Vatican II, maybe we can take to heart a few words from the Council:- "It is at the level of the local church that the spirit of ecumenism must find a concrete expression. A difficulty is created if ecumenical initiatives are left solely to unofficial groups. The importance of local ecumenism derives from the significance of local churches in the Catholic Church." [A Flannery O.P. pp 155-1`56 vol. II]

The White Gift Aid envelopes: Following a suggestion made at the PPC, these occasional white Gift Aid envelopes have been left on church benches. Those who use them will be pleased to know that in the last Gift Aid submission the amount claimed on the white envelopes alone was just over £370.00 bringing back to the parish £92.50 on top of that £370.00. More people could use them as you will see by the weekly loose plate amount we have.

Sick and Housebound: We remember Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Christina Gentis, Cliff Mann, Michael & Shirley Plant, Chris Holmes, Janet Smith and Joan Mason. Fr Trevor Clarke remains seriously ill and no further treatment seems possible for him.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Fr Waldo Judd (Hassop P.P.), Peter Gould, Julian Chambers, Diane Taafe and Hugo McGhee.
