On Thursday Our local Deanery meeting. At a recent diocesan meeting, further plans for the restructuring of parishes in the Diocese were discussed and these plans have now gone a step further. Bishop Malcolm has come up with some concrete proposals as he tries to balance the pastoral needs of the Diocese with the number of priests he will have available to serve in full time ministry.

March diary ...

Lent Devotions continue with daily celebration of morning Mass, the Way of the Cross after Friday's Mass and, again, on Friday evenings in Bakewell at 6.30pm. Bakewell Parish Church also has the Way of the Cross on Monday evenings at 6.30pm. This devotion can be very helpful as an ecumenical witness during Lent.

A Call to Action' –Fr John Lally (Leicester) says a meeting for priests and people will take place at Holy Trinity, Boundary Road, Newark NG24 4AU, on Saturday, 2 March 2013, 10.30am to 1pm. Refreshments from 10am. Please bring a packed lunch.

Choir Gallery handrail – has been approved at long last. Those parishioners who don't visit the gallery will not know that for some time there has been concern about health and safety measures up there. It has been a long hard slog trying to get the necessary permissions and the patience of Job is definitely needed when trying to take something like this forward because All Saints Hassop is a Grade I listed building. It seems we now have the green light!

Louise Cooke is the Diocesan representative for Justice & Peace concerns: Louise is very busy writing to the 108 or so parishes of Nottingham Diocese trying to promote J & P matters locally, nationally and even internationally. She would love to have a local contact from our parish. Chris Holmes fulfilled this role for some years before his death last December. She can be contacted on jnnottingham@nrcdt.org.uk Louise is busy preparing an important conference to be held on 18th March in the Cathedral Hall Nottingham at 7.30pm. Further details on the notice boards.

Sacraments for our younger parish members: if we have any young parishioners for First Holy Communion or First Reconciliation, please let Fr Hugh know. The usual age for these Sacraments is about 8 –9 but it can be later. The important thing is to guide the young by example and commitment to the Sunday Eucharist and parish community
