My sincere thanks to all who supported the parish during the days of Holy Week and the Sacred Triduum leading us to Easter Sunday. It was a long Holy Week but I am grateful that the weather did not disrupt arrangements totally as it did one year when I was in Scotland. Fr David Pember phoned last Monday evening to say 'thank you' for our welcome and that he really did enjoy his visit to "Hassop city"! My thanks, then, for your Easter prayers, wishes and offerings, Fr Hugh

This weekend we have a letter from Bishop Malcolm on the subject of the Sick & Retired Priests' Fund for Nottingham Diocese. Since this diocesan appeal is being lay led, the Bishop has asked that his letter be read by parishioners. Thanks go to our volunteers for doing this.

Next Saturday evening we have our quiz evening in the parish rooms Hassop at 7.30pm. There's not much enthusiasm so far for the tickets and this will be the last opportunity to remind folks about the evening. Tickets are restricted to 40 only and sold on a 'first come – first served' basis so, please, don't ask the Social Committee to reserve tickets for you. Many thanks for your cooperation. If you can help with a dessert for the occasion, even if you are not able to come, this will greatly help on the evening.

April Diary Dates:

10th SVP meets after Hassop morning Communion service

11th Morning Communion service in Bakewell

13-14th Nigel Trend speaks to us about the new Gift Aid regulations that come into force this year for new members.

23rd Parish "thank you evening" for everybody ... as we say a sincere "thank you" to all who keep things together no matter what the weather is like!

25th We have a Counters' Evening just to bring ourselves up to date with the new rules that govern our loose cash collections. To get the Gift Aid on these, we have to record them separately and we have to have a paper trail showing accountability

Traidcraft: would anyone like to 'man' the Traidcraft stall on the first Sunday in the month in Bakewell and the second Sunday or last Sunday in the month in Hassop. The goods will be provided. This could be a family, an individual or young person. If interested please talk to Juliet Peel. Many parishes, towns and villages are Fair Trade places, it would be really good if we could work towards our parish being a Fair Trade parish. This would mean serving Fair Trade products at our events as far as this is possible.

Christian Aid: there is a Quiz sheet for sale at £1 which needs to be returned by 13th May. Also CA are holding a Hunger Lunch on Wednesday, 24th May at 12noon – 2pm in the Medway Centre, Bakewell, tickets are available at £5 or pay on the door.

Parish Social Events already planned are:-

13th April Quiz evening, 1st June BBQ evening in Hassop

29th June Summer Fair, 31st August BBQ Hassop

5th October Autumn quiz evening, 7th December Christmas Fair in Bakewell.

We have agreed to restrict parish social activities to six per year and, now, you have the full list available for your planning! Please mark the dates on your calendars!

TOTALLY LOCALLY: is a marketing initiative that is out to promote and assist 'our locals'. The Bakewell At Work newsletter speaks about it and we are being frequently reminded to keep in mind our local shops and traders. The initiative will be launched on 28th April and there will be various outlets of information. The newsletter is available.

Monica Martyn would like to have a few more volunteers for our Hassop Sunday morning coffee refreshments. Please get in touch with Monica if you can help. You won't be doing this little job every week – rather about every 3 months. We also probably need volunteers for the refreshment occasions we have in Bakewell. Margaret Trend or Helen Hoare can help you with information here.

Please remember our parish "thank you" evening to be held on St George's Day at 7.30pm in the parish rooms. It is an opportunity for us to get to know each other because, amazingly enough for a small parish like ours, many of us are not known by name. We have many "Marthas" in the parish and we can be grateful for this, so please, do feel very free to come along so that we can get to know ourselves a little better.

Individually Guided Retreat led by Secular Discalced Carmelites will be held 13 – 17th May at Mt St Bernard's Monastery. Further details on notice boards.

Sick and Housebound: Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Janet Smith, and David Hurd. Also, some of our parishioners are awaiting medical results and operations and we remember them, too, in our Eucharist

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Maureen Davis, Mary Kilpin and Fr Dennis Paxman.

Good Friday collection for the Holy Places £132.70

Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
