Thank you all very much and thanks to the 33 parishioners who came along to make it a pleasant evening. There was enough food for a few more to have come along. A nice evening was had by all.

Catechists course in Matlock: one of those attending writes: 'Four parishioners have been attending the course since last October. The tutors, the material and our fellow students help to make it interesting. We have group discussions and write a reflective log for each session. We all agree this course is well worth doing. It is very Parish related and also stimulating for the brain cells. Certificates will be issued in June and I would certainly recommend it to other parishioners for next year'.

From Roger & Judy still recovering after all the celebrations! 'WE THANK YOU so much for a spiritual and joyful Mass last Sunday, the family blessing, the champagne/social period after Mass in the Parish Rooms. It was a very happy occasion for us, our family and visitors. Our thanks to all who made it such a happy time.' And we who gathered with Roger and Judy also enjoyed a very happy occasion. We look forward to the next 50th this year!

Boxes of Hope have been our pre-Christmas ecumenical effort to think of others as we prepare for Christmas. The proceeds have been sent to Romania. Jane Horton has organised this for the last few years but will not be doing it this year. Barry Thompson (Curbar All Saints Church) will continue to be overall organiser and would like to have a helper from our community. If you can help, his number is 01433 630373. Further information from Fr Hugh who is waiting for a reply from a parishioner or two!

The Sacrament of Baptism will be celebrated in the coming weeks as we go towards the feast of Pentecost. We pray for the parents of the children to be baptised.

Sick and Housebound: Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Janet Smith, David Hurd and Alan Seers (recently admitted to the Cottage Nursing Home). We remember our parishioners not mentioned in this list in our Sunday Eucharist.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Baby Alfie Huw Keohane-Gaskell, Paddy Frain and Monica Short. We also remember Joan Dodwell who died recently.

May their souls rest in peace
