Diary of the month:

8th S V P meeting after Mass

15-16th Fr Josephat CSSp is with us for the weekend

20th Deanery meeting in Alfreton (morning)

20th PPC meets 7.30pm in parish rooms

29-30th Feast of Ss Peter & Paul celebrated instead of the Sunday in Ordinary Time (please note for our younger parishioners' liturgy). Also, renewal of Eucharistic Ministers in their ministry and service of the parish community in Hassop and 2nd collection for Peter's Pence (papal charities)

29th Summer Fair in Hassop – lots of preparations in advance, please! The usual items, bottles, jars of this and that and tuther – all appreciated – along with good quality bric-à-brac; if you can, please sort and smarten things up a bit! Many thanks once again for your help & support. Cash prizes for the raffle always help it to be a success.

This weekend we have the summer BBQ and it seems like the weather will smile on us ... at least, that is what we are told. The proceeds of this event will be given to the Holy Ghost Frs to help them in their needs (just as the diocese has needs and, of course, we have our family needs as well). Last year, we had a successful BBQ to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of the CSSp presence in the parish and it was suggested that we hold this as an annual event and decided to hold it near to Pentecost. If you are unable to support the BBQ but would like to offer a donation to the Holy Ghost Frs, please feel free to do this and, if so chosen, can be Gift Aided. Peter Marsh has the forms for this.

Corpus Christi

Bishop Malcolm has asked all parishes to have Eucharistic Adoration for this Feast.

This Sunday in Hassop from 4-5pm there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with readings from the Acts of the Apostles and quiet time for reflection and adoration with music. Please feel free to come and go for as long as you wish.

It will end with Benediction.

A message from Nigel Trend (Gift Aid Coordinator): Visitors and regular Parishioners, if you wish to Gift Aid your donation using the white envelopes, please would you be kind enough to complete the form attached to them. Once completed, it can be popped inside the envelope with your donation. This only needs to be done once, so if you return to Hassop or Bakewell in the future or use the white envelopes as a regular parishioner, you will not need to complete this form again. Nigel'

The Bill on Marriage (the re-definition of marriage) was voted on earlier in May. The Bill has not yet become law although it did have a substantial majority (366 to 161). You can find out how your local M.P. voted by checking on various websites including www.spuc.org.uk The next stage for this Bill will in the House of Lords and it is expected that there will be strong opposition from the Lords to the Bill in its present form and a vote is expected this Monday. There is a list of Catholic Peers given recently by SPUC: if you would like to have information about this, please see the notice boards in both churches.

Father Na'e'l –(an Anglican priest) from Zababdeh, near Nablus, in the West Bank, is coming to Bakwell on Monday for two weeks. He will be coming with his wife, Mira, and his little daughter, Clara, and on Sunday 9th, he will be speaking at our 11.00am service and also at 6.00pm

Evensong. If anyone would like to come along in the evening to hear him, they would be most welcome.' (A message from Pat Bryant of the Parish Church Bakewell)

Anne Shimwell has written a lovely reflection in the June edition of our ecumenical Good News magazine.

Sick and Housebound: Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Janet Smith, David Hurd and Alan Peers. We remember also our parishioners not mentioned on the parish list in our Sunday Eucharist

Anniversaries: – We pray at this time for Doreen Kelly, Katherine Smith, Eric Allsop, Baby Orla McKee, and Clare Bendefy. We also remember Fr Joseph Duggan (diocesan priest) and Mrs Edith Gillan who have died recently.

May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £132.00 Loose Plate Hassop £60.61 Bakewell £35.72 Total £228.33
