Peter was a humble fisherman. Paul an opponent of the first Christians. Through the call of Christ and the moment of grace, their lives were radically changed for ever becoming the pillars of the Christian tradition and faith. They sealed this commitment to Christ by suffering martyrdom in Rome and are honoured in that city even to this day.

This Sunday we have the 10.00am Mass in Hassop with our younger parishioners in mind. We follow the Eucharistic Prayer as previously with the younger members having a text and remaining with their parents/grandparents, etc. Our parish Eucharistic Ministers will renew their commitment to this ministry during the Mass. There is a diocesan 2nd collection for Peter's Pence.

Next Sunday – 1st Sunday in July: Vigil Mass at Hassop with Sunday Mass in Bakewell as above. After noon Holy Hour with Benediction as above for the Year of Faith.

Diary of the month:

3rd SVP meeting after morning Mass

6th July Bakewell Carnival

7th July ABC United Service on 11.15am. The annual ABC United Service in the Park is starting at the later time of 11.15am to allow those attending 10am Mass in Bakewell to get from church to the park before the service begins. This year it is 'our' turn to nominate a speaker for the address and we are lucky to have the services of Sheilagh Preston, former national President of The Union of Catholic Mothers (UCM), a seasoned public speaker and ecumenical activist, to be our representative. It would be great to have a good turn out from our parish for this annual event which marks the end of carnival week and the role of the churches in community life.' Fr Hugh has been invited to offer the closing Blessing.

14th Padley Sunday with Archbishop Peter Smith of Southwark as the principal celebrant and homilist. This is our local pilgrimage and we are encouraged to make something of it. We assemble at 3.00pm at Grindleford Station and Mass begins at 3.30pm. Information leaflets from Celia White are available for us.

17th S V P meeting after morning Mass

Christine Pieters (from Belgium) is looking for a family in Bakewell for her daughter for one year. Info. from Fr Hugh.

Parish Pilgrimage to Padley Chapel starting from Hassop July 14th after Mass

The arrangements for the proposed 5.75 mile walk with a stop for a sandwich lunch and return by car after the 3.30 p.m Mass cannot be made unless the number of parishioners participating is known. Please let Roger Burkey (01246 583382) know if you are coming. If there is low interest, the plan will be shelved. So far, only one person has responded to this invitation.

Parking at Hassop: a gentle reminder not to block the entrance to the workshop in the stable yard, there is a polite notice on the doors to remind you. We are able to park in front of Hassop Hall on Sundays until 11.30am thanks to the kindness of the proprietors.

Our parish IN TOUCH magazine is still available at 60p. It gives a flavour of life in our parish community. Our thanks go to Anne Shimwell for putting it together and to Grant Bigg who helped with the proofreading Seventy-five copies have been printed costing £40.00 and the feed-back so far received is appreciative of this new edition. Thanks to all concerned... and you'll find on page 4 a liturgical word and culinary word getting mixed up!

Parish Counters – please note the new folder just for you! Weeks & dates have been planned by Bernadette so all you need to do is to access this folder and you're in business ... we hope!

Union of Catholic Mothers (UCM) still invites and encourages new members to join. Would anybody like to start a little group in our parish? It's "flexi", friendly, supportive and bonds people together on our faith journey.

Derby University hosts a multi-faith centre and is arranging to hold one-day training sessions that will look at radicalisation and terrorism from 9.30am to 4.30pm. It will begin on 23rd July; further details on notice boards.

Sick and Housebound: Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Janet Smith, David Hurd and Alan Peers. We remember also our parishioners not mentioned on the parish list in our Sunday Eucharist.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for those of our families and friends whose anniversaries occur at this time. . May their souls rest in peace

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £113.00 Loose Plate Hassop£65.45 Bakewell £16.74Total £195.19. Our thanks to the parishioners who have recently begun to support the parish through their banking arrangements which go immediately to the parish account.
