'The Way of the Cross invites us, and families in particular, to contemplate Christ crucified ... Christ's cross is the supreme sign of God's love for everyone of us... In that crucified Man who is Son of God, even death takes on a new meaning and purpose ... it becomes a passage to new life.' [Benedict XVI] 14th September is the feast of the Holy Cross of the Lord.

Diary of the month:

15th Today is HOME MISSION SUNDAY – a day to remember that there are many who have little or no visible communion with the Church. On this Sunday we remember all who have been hurt or no longer trust. To all, we say 'Don't be afraid to return – the door is always open'. There will be a retiring collection for HOME MISSION SUNDAY.

18th Deanery meeting and SVP meeting after morning Mass

19th Coffee morning in Parish Church B'well 11.00am to 1.00pm for MACMILLAN cancer support teams.

22nd Next Sunday Mass at Hassop two visiting families celebrate their Wedding Anniversaries at Mass.

26th PPC meets at 7.30pm in presbytery

28-29th A special collection for the outreach and missionary work of the St Vincent de Paul Society

29th Young Parishioners' Mass at 10.00 in Hassop – back to our last Sunday of month arrangement! Many thanks to all who helped with this Mass last Sunday morning.

St Mary's Catholic High School: Congratulations to the pupils and staff at St Mary's on their excellent A level and GCSE results this year. 62% of the A level grades were A or B. and the %cohort achieving A*-C including Maths and English at GCSE was 80%. This places them amongst the top schools in Derbyshire and the Diocese.

Also St Mary's is celebrating 150 years and have commissioned a book on the school. Leonie McSweeney would love to hear from you if you have some photos and memories of your time at the school.

Sister Susan PBVM is the school chaplain at St Mary's Chesterfield and is holding some support meetings for parents of the students. If you have children in the school and would like to know more, please contact the school.

Traidcraft: this month's sales and donations were £54.80, many thanks! New catalogues available and next month we have calendars and other pre Christmas goods for sale.

Elwira Pniewski (doesn't sound Irish!) has an interesting article in a recent TABLET titled, 'Unlock the domestic church'. A few copies have been made and are available. She writes about catechetics in the parish and the important place of parents in any catechetical activity.

100 Club Winners last week were A Hill, M & C Allsop and A Keohane – well done! Don't forget, September is the month for many of us to renew our membership. Your reminder is at the back of both churches ... and, please, help our expenses by collecting your reminder and sending your renewal cheque c/o M Allsop or Fr Hugh. Thanks to our 100 Club volunteers generous gift of their time, the parish makes a modest profit on it.

7th October at 5.00pm we have our own meeting to discuss arrangements for our parish catechetical support for younger parishioners. It is an 'open meeting' and parents and young parishioners will be most welcome to come along and share their ideas with Carol McDermott, Liz Marsh, Mickey Etchells, Vicky Dooley and Fr Hugh. It is very much an open meeting asking for ideas and activity suggestions as we try to plant faith seeds in this Year of Faith which finishes on 24th November.

Next Saturday at the convent in Matlock, CAFOD will hold its meeting already mentioned many times previously.

From Thursday's Liturgy meeting: grateful thanks were expressed for all the effort put into the monthly Mass for our younger parishioners and for the preparations that Margaret Trend has put into the Year of Faith holy hours we have had. More preparations before the Sunday morning would help the Mass for the young and greater numbers at the holy hours would encourage the organisers. The next Mass for the young will be on 29th September and a family will be approached about preparing the Bidding Prayers. Lise Elliot or Fr Hugh will be available to help but the idea is to spread out the work of preparation.

Parish diaries still available at 50p suggested donation

Shroud of Turin Exhibition in St Barnabas Cathedral is on from 27th Oct. through to 1st November. There are various events taking place – info. on church boards.

Sick and Housebound: Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Janet Smith, David Hurd, Alan Peers, Jayne Connelly and Peggy Johnson. We remember as well our parishioners not mentioned in the parish newsletter. Also, Frs Ted Holmes & Andy O'Sullivan CSSp – both ill.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Peter Hespe and Florence Gannon. Also, we remember Fr Werner Arnold CSSp, provincial in Switzerland, who died recently and Baby Angel Walsh and her parents + family.

May their souls rest in peace.
