Next Friday is the feast of St Vincent de Paul. "The gospels seem to reveal to us another message viz. the mystery of the poor consecrated to God through the sacred 'oils' of pain, rejection and weakness. St Vincent de Paul said, 'The poor are our teachers'. The gospels show that God welcomes in a special way those whom society rejects."

Barry Thompson from All Saints Curbar has been in touch with us about a new ecumenical initiative. Last Saturday, Barry dropped off some information leaflets for Samaritan's Purse. Once again, it is an effort to think of others as we prepare for the Christmas season. The leaflets are available in both churches.

It is an 'open meeting' and parents and young parishioners will be most welcome to come along and share their ideas with Carol McDermott, Liz Marsh, Mickey Etchells, Vicky Dooley and Fr Hugh. It is very much an open meeting asking for ideas and activity suggestions as we try to plant faith seeds in this Year of Faith which finishes on 24th November.

Louise Cooke (Diocesan J & P Rep.) writes: 'The staggering rise in the numbers of people using food banks is down to failings in the benefit system, too many low paid jobs and rising prices that are dragging huge numbers into poverty. This was the finding of a report in May by Church Action On Poverty and Oxfam which suggested up to half of those seeking help were doing so as a direct result of having benefit payments delayed, reduced or withdrawn.'

From Bishop Malcolm: 'As you know, my left foot has been causing me considerable discomfort and pain for almost twelve months...I have had the plaster cast on my foot changed weekly. In spite of all this, my foot still has not fully healed. I have decided to take at least six weeks' sick leave so that I can rest properly.' We remember our Bishop in our prayers.

Jars of honey are on sale in Hassop: 2 types – 2 prices, one £4.50 and one £5.00! £1.00 from each jar is donated to the parish. Please leave money in box provided.
