Unusual words from Vladimir Putin: 'We can see how many of the Euro-Atlantic countries are actually rejecting their roots, including the Christian values that constitute the basis of Western civilisation. They are denying moral principles and all traditional identities ...' [Mary Dejevsky's article in The Tablet p. 12 28th September 2013]

October remains a month dedicated to the Rosary. Why not say a part of the Rosary quietly at home or on the bus or strolling around? "Finger rosaries" help to do this!

Diary of the month:

6th this afternoon we have Holy Hour 4.00-5.00pm as part of our Year of Faith. We continue our reading of the Acts of the Apostles interspersed with quiet prayer and Taize music. Those who have been able to come have found it a welcome time of quiet prayer.

7th R E Group meets from 5 to 6.00pm. This is an exploratory meeting. Some parents have been contacted to bring their children along but it is open to all who would like to come and reflect on pastoral support for our younger parishioners. We have a core team made of Liz Marsh, Mickey Etchells, Vicky Dooley, Carol McDermott and Fr Hugh. Sacramental celebrations for our young parishioners would be a part of this R E activity. Hence the role of parents in it.

10th Ecumenical clergy meeting in Hassop

13th PPC AGM after the 10a.m. Mass in Hassop— see box.

14th Deanery meeting in Hassop

18-20th Ampleforth Retreat.

20-24th One World Week – various ecumenical gatherings have been arranged and Linda Brooks has kindly agreed to arrange for our evening service during these days.

31st Vigil Mass for All Saints 6.15pm Bakewell

Last weekend's St Vincent de Paul Collection realised £250.00 which is an excellent result. On behalf of the St Vincent de Paul Society, I would like to thank all those who supported our retiring collection and who are moved by the message of St Vincent de Paul.

Cynthia Rider (Secretary).

This weekend we begin our 'head count' for the Diocese. Welcomers, please do your little job of counting the people gathered at Mass. There is a form for this.

The parish has received £500.00 following the Funeral Mass of Joan Dengel where there were donation baskets for Helen's Trust and our own parish. Our thanks to Theo and the family for thinking of the parish at the time of Joan's Funeral and for rounding off the amount collected.

Mick Allsop's sponsored blindfolded walk!!! The final amount from this 24 hour walk was £10,901.10 and congratulations must go to all who made it such a success. Mick says 'thank you' to all who sponsored and walked with him to make sure he stayed on the straight & narrow!

7th December (a Saturday) there will be two important happenings – (1) our Christmas Fair in Bakewell and (2)

Nottingham Diocese will be holding a resource day in order to encourage the work of catechesis in our parishes and schools. If anybody would like to represent the parish at this event, please let Fr Hugh know. It is a great pity that there is a clash but there it is! Maybe somebody not attending the fair would go on "safari" to Nottingham on behalf of the parish?

Last Wednesday evening, Peter Peel, Tony Hynes and Fr Hugh attended the finance meeting in Matlock. We were reminded about the Sick & Retired Priests' Fund (for the Diocese), the expected increase in the parish quotas from 20% to 21½%, subject to approval by the various Nottingham bodies, and Gift Aid. We are encouraged to use our white occasional envelopes (available in both churches) provided a Gift Aid declaration has been signed. More will be said later about the different channels of gift aiding to the parish.

Sick and Housebound: Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, Janet Smith, David Hurd, Alan Peers and Peggy Johnson. We remember also our parishioners not mentioned in the parish newsletter in our Sunday Eucharist. We continue to pray for Frs Ted Holmes & Andy O'Sullivan CSSp – both of whom are quite ill these days.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for John Skidmore and Derek Wilson. May their souls rest in peace.

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £170.85 Loose Plate Hassop £62.97 Bakewell £50.80 £ Total £284.62
Gift Aid Envelopes are available in both churches for use by parishioners and visitors. Please use!
