This weekend, at the request of a number of parishioners, there will be a special retiring collection for the Philippines. CAFOD has asked every parish to hold a collection. Please see their poster on the notice board. I know that a number of parishioners already support their own "adopted" charity and many NGO's will receive funding from the Disaster Emergency Committee. CAFOD is a member of this D E C. Our parish response to the appeal will be sent to CAFOD and will be given as our response to help in this emergency. Obviously, some of you may prefer to make your own arrangements for responding and offering help. What is important, I think, is that we make a gospel response to it. So, please feel free to respond through the parish or through your own personal arrangements. Thank you! Fr Hugh

Diary of the month:

18th Social Committee meets at noon in presbytery to plan for the Christmas Fayre.

19th Parish Finance Committee meets at 7.00pm – meeting finishes at 8.30pm at the latest!

20th Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) meets at 7.00pm – meeting finishes at 8.30pm sharp! This new time is ad experimentum and may need to be changed. The pastoral brief of the PPC is to offer to the wider parish community a vision of how we live our faith in today's Britain and to develop ways of bonding our community so that its members are living stones.

23rd Next Saturday the gathering in the Cathedral to close the Year of Faith. At present, there seems to be 3 cars going and there may still be a seat to two. Please contact Roger Burkey or Tim Harding for final arrangements.

24th Next Sunday – feast of Christ the King. Mass for our young parishioners with the usual adaptations. With this feast, Year C in the Liturgical Year comes to an end and we now return to Year A. Sunday Missals for Year A are available at £5.00. If you already have these Missals for Year A, they will still be valid for the readings, etc. but the dates will be different. Only one new Missal has so far been bought so we will not be ordering them next year.

December dates to remember now! 1st Dec. is a Sunday so the Vigil Mass will be in Hassop on 30th November. 7th Dec. is a Saturday, the day of our Christmas Fayre in Bakewell Town Hall from noon to 3.00pm. Please prepare!
Advent begins with Vigil Mass on 30th November.

The late Richard Barnes is being remembered in a special way. There is a CD now available and any profits from sales will go to help two named charities. Parish members of the Bakewell Choral Society will help with info.

Important message from St Mary's School Chesterfield: Derbyshire County Council is in a consultation to withdraw the provision of subsidised transport for faith schools. St Mary's is opposed to this proposal. "What, if anything, can we do? This consultation closes on 2nd December at 5.00pm. There is a list of councillors and MP's that can be contacted about this issue. Please ask Fr Hugh for the list or look at the notice boards in both churches. Patrick McLoughlin M.P. and Councillor Judith Twigg have both replied to e-mails sent by Fr Hugh. It is good to let these public figures know about our concerns even if we are not expecting too much from them.

Parish 100 Club winners last weekend were M Watkiss, B & J Cain and W & C McDermott. We have 85 members at present and that magic number of 100 just does not seem to be within our grasp. We are grateful to non-parishioners who support the 100 Club and through it the parish.

Raffle tickets are available and, as we usually do, we invite parishioners to help with the cash prizes for the Christmas raffle. This helps the raffle to be a success. Also, if you are unable to come to the Christmas Fayre but would like to make a donation, please give it to a member of the Parish Social Committee. Thank you once again!

Bill & Carol McDermott and their family thank those parishioners who were able to attend the Requiem Mass for Bill's mother last Tuesday in Sheffield. It was a very fitting farewell to a lady who had lived so long. R.I.P.

The diocesan Catholic News is with us this weekend! Please take a copy to know a little about "our" Diocese. Also, don't forget we are being invited to think about the Synod due to take place next! Over to us ... to think & talk

Sick and Housebound: Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, David Hurd, Alan Peers and Peggy Johnson. We remember also our parishioners not mentioned in the parish newsletter in our Sunday Eucharist.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially for Peter Gould, Julian Chambers, Hugo McGhee and Diane Taafe. Also, Sr Madeline Campion and Janet Smith (Burton Close and regularly visited by S V P) who died in recently.

May their souls rest in peace.
