'You are my Son, the beloved'. These are the words heard from heaven when Jesus allowed John the Baptist to baptise him in the Jordan showing he was one of us. We are told plainly the identity of Jesus; he was God and man. 'You are my son, the beloved.' We may not hear these words at our own baptism but our faith tells us that this is what happens at each of our baptisms. We need to rediscover more and more our true identity given to us at baptism- that of the Beloved Child of God, This is referred to many times in the ceremony of baptism. Jesus, then, should be the centre of our lives. Let us pray that the truth that we are really and truly children of God have an impact on our lives.
