This Sunday the canonisation ceremony will take place in Rome for Popes John XXIII and John Paul II. An estimated five million pilgrims are expected to attend and there will be wide coverage on the EWTN network. Pope John's "word" that was much used in his lifetime was "aggiornamento" which means, according to the late Bishop C Butler (a former Abbot of Downside), 'a bringing up to date' and was used at the time of Vatican II. Perhaps the phrase that might sum up the ministry of Pope John Paul II was that phrase of the gospel, "Do not be afraid" said by Our Lord to his disciples.

St George's Day is transferred to Monday because of the Easter Octave. Bishop Malcolm will celebrate a Farewell Mass on this day at noon in the Cathedral in Nottingham. All who can are cordially invited to attend the celebration.

My grateful and sincere thanks to all who helped during the days of Holy Week and who helped with our efforts for the Sacred Triduum and the surrounding liturgies all of which demand preparation and an understanding of the Church's Year of Grace in the lives of the Faithful. My thanks for your kind thoughts and prayers at Easter along with your Easter Offerings which will help me on my visit to Rome! Finally, I think we have to say how beautiful was the Good Friday Passion drama that took place in Bakewell. It was an excellent witness to our common pilgrimage and full marks go to the organisers and performers!

Our total then is £733.19 which is a very useful sum to help Mary Stewart's missionary work for young people in Kenya. The hope is that Vicky Dooley will be able to accept a cheque on behalf of Mary one Sunday morning after Mass during refreshments. Please bring a camera! Again, many thanks to all who used the opportunity of Lent to think of others and gave that little "extra" for our mission support.

Received for parish income an annual donation of £300.00 which was gift aided. Thank you for your support.

We've a number of "foreign" coins in the parish office and, if anybody would like to have a look at what we've got, please contact Fr Hugh. A deal might be possible!
