31st Wedding service in Hassop

Next Sunday morning we are all invited to the Parish Rooms for a little celebration! A cheque will be presented to Vicky Dooley for Mary Stewart's work in Kenya. This is the fruits of our Lent Offerings. At present the total is very close to £800.00 so this will be the amount for the cheque. It is also to say 'thank you' for 1944! Some folks become septuagenarians this year and we are all invited to gather with them! Alas, the roll call is far too long to mention but the Parish Social Committee invites us all for a little celebration after Mass. Don't forget to bring a camera or two! Sharon and Monica would appreciate a helping hand if you can give one - please let them know today.

Next Sunday evening is also very important because we shall be hosting the Evening Service for Christian Aid Week in English Martyrs Bakewell. Joel Paine will be the guest preacher and we are to provide a liturgical framework for the service. Christian Aid does give some ideas for this. This may be the first time we have arranged this service so it is hoped that parishioners will support it generously.

Our cemetery: "The PPC has once again sought to canvass support from the Transport Department of DDC for the development of a lay-by for the Hassop cemetery. Once again, all our arguments have been rejected on the grounds of highway visibility. Undaunted, we are now considering other ways in which we can improve safe access to the cemetery for funerals and visitors. All suggestions welcome!" – message from Tim Harding.

Nottingham Diocese is hosting a RESOURCE DAY on "FAMILIES AND FAITH" at ARNOLD, Nottingham NG5 7JZ on 22nd November 10 am-4 pm Guest Speaker: Bishop John Sherrington. (Cost £12 includes lunch) More info. nearer the date ... but you could note it even now. It would be good for us to be represented at this important meeting.

To our Eucharistic Ministers – thank you for attending our meeting on Thursday evening and we remembered those unable to be present with us. We have agreed that we need about 3 more Eucharistic Ministers for the steady flow of the needs of this ministry. We also agreed to draw up a plan for visiting and taking the Eucharist to the sick, frail and elderly who cannot attend Mass and to maintain our present commitment to some weekday services.

In a few weeks' time we will be preparing our weekly Offertory envelopes to begin in June. This year we have reduced the number of boxes ordered from 55 to 40 because more & more parishioners are using their banking systems for parish support. Reducing the number of boxes saves us money (and V A T). It does mean that those of you with a higher number will get a new one – a lower one! Nigel Trend will be preparing the boxes for our use.

April Right to Life Newsletter reports on some horrifying incidents that have taken place in some NHS hospitals and looks at the Assisted Dying Bill along with information about 3-parent embryos. Scary stuff, it is. Maybe somebody could give us more information about Lord Falconer's Bill on Assisted Dying and 3-parent embryos?

European Elections take place on 22nd May.

Sick and Housebound: Audrey Brooks, Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, David Hurd and Peggy Johnson. We remember also our parishioners not mentioned in the newsletter at our Sunday Eucharist.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially Clare Fletcher, Winifred Grennon and Peter Pathe. May their souls rest in peace

Last Sunday's collection: Envelopes £123.60 Loose Plate Hassop £30.27 Bakewell £66.50 Total £220.37
