The question each of us must ask ourselves today is, "What type of soil for the word of God do I represent? Am I like the pathway where the seed cannot even sprout, or like the rocky ground where the seed sprouts but has no roots, or like thorny ground where the word of God is choked to death by worldly cares, or like the good soil that bears much fruit?"

This weekend we welcome Fr Slawomir Kielbasa who is a member of the Society of African Missions (SMA). Fr Slawomir comes from Poland and is based in Manchester. Once per year we extend a welcome to a representative of a missionary order and this year the SMA Fathers are preaching in Nottingham Diocese – hence his visit to us. It is an opportunity for us to show once again our solidarity with the missionary wing of the Church all over the world and there will be a 2nd collection after Holy Communion.

Our young parishioners will go to the parish rooms after the opening hymn with the Parish Catechists and return as usual at the time of the Offertory. Our thanks to the Catechists for supporting this work with our young and, if it is helpful, parents may wish to escort the children to the parish rooms.

To the Parish Social Committee we owe a huge debt of gratitude for our BBQ last Saturday evening and, also, our gratitude to all who helped the evening to go so well and be so pleasant. Thank you again! The evening raised £726.00 towards the support of the Holy Ghost Frs and this money will be sent to the CSSp Bursar to help the Sick & Aged members of the order. In the end about 45 tickets were sold but 12 of these were bought on the night of the BBQ and, whilst it was good to see so many people enjoying themselves, it did put a strain on the organisers of the occasion because we had not expected so many.

In Touch parish magazine is ready and available this weekend. There was a moment when we thought there may not be a summer edition and, then, suddenly things happened and it began to take shape! Thank you, Anne, for tackling it once more for the parish community. You are asked to pay 60p per copy to help towards expenses.

Sick and Housebound: Audrey Brooks, Jenny Lovett, Patricia Turner, Cliff Mann, Shirley Plant, David Hurd, Peggy Johnson and Eileen Simpson. We also remember in prayer the sick of our families and friends not mentioned by name

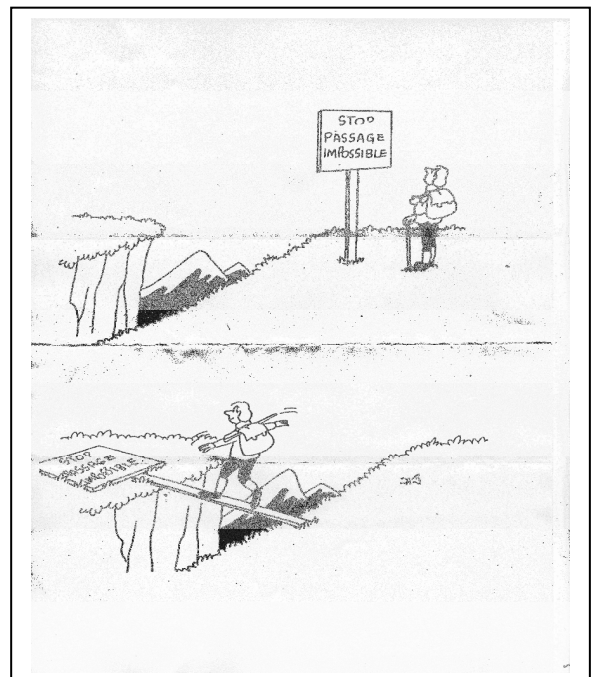

On Saturday July 19th, Chris and Michael Allsop will be taking part in the MB Advertising Congathon in aid of the Weston Park Cancer Hospital. Last year they raised the fantastic sum of £11,650. Mick & Chris are our "heroes" and you can sponsor them on their Congathon through various channels. Please ask for details from Christine & Michael or look for sponsor forms.

Our Diocesan Archivist is Fr Anthony Dolan (also PP of Grantham) and he has kindly agreed for a few of us to have access to the parish archives in Willson House in Nottingham. This will take place on 28th July.

This Sunday is Padley Pilgrimage Those going meet their fellow pilgrims at 3.00pm at Grindleford Station and process to the chapel for Mass. Usually one or even two Bishops are in attendance – possibly Hallam's new Bishop!

Carnival Service: Thanks to all who participated in the Carnival Service last Sunday – it was generous of people to put themselves out to attend.

Anniversaries: – We pray this week especially Joan Tommason and Hilary Erskine-Murray. May their souls rest in peace
